Mrs. J. J. Hennessy started for Spokane on Thursday where she will visit for the next four weeks.

Wait Wade, a Granite mining superintendent, came over on Monday and took the train for Baker City.

John S. Laidlaw, designer and builder of the Cracker Oregon and California mills, was in the city yesterday.

J. W. Cowden, the view artist, has just finished some handsome pictures of the California tramway and mill.

Bela Kadish, a Baker City sampling works and mining man, was an incoming passenger on yesterday's train.

H. N. Thibault, owner of the Don Juan mine and mill in the Greenhorns, came in from his mine on Friday last.

C. J. Allen, principal owner of the Belvue, came in from the mine today and left on the afternoon train for his home in Portland.

Colonel J. Nat Hudson has moved into rooms 1 and 3 Bank of Sumpter building. Dr. E. G. Kirby now occupies the rooms vacated by the Colonel.

P. A. McPhee, proprietor of the Hotel Alamo, at the town of that name, passed through Sumpter yesterday on his way to Portland and other points on the coast.

George Obenauer Jr., general manager of the Giant Powder company of San Francisco, who has been in the district for a few days, left on today's train for the south.

James P. McGuigan and bride returned on Saturday from the east, and proceeded to Alamo, where Mr. McGuigan is president and general manager of the Alamo consolidated mines.

Neil J. Sorensen, Otto Herlocker and Frank Shelton, of the firm of Neil J. Sorensen & Co., are in Baker City. They will return to Sumpter by the last of the week.

J. F. Meikle, Superintendent of the Black Eagle mine at Malheur City, has moved his family to that place and will reside there in the future. Mr. Meikle will devote his time to the mine and mill.

J. Win Wilson, of the firm of Wilson & Bucknum, will return from the east soon. He has formed connections while absent which will benefit his firm greatly and incidentally all of eastern Oregon.

George Jett, county assessor came up from Baker City on Friday and returned Sunday. Mr. Jett has just purchased a large tract of land adjoining his homestead below town. He has the greatest faith in the future of Sumpter.

When "Jimmie" McGuigan arrived at Alamo on Sunday with his bride. Grand Old Quebec Mountain had a wedding present in store for him in the shape of one of the biggest mining strikes made in eastern Oregon for some time.

Born: on the 14th instant, at St Elizabeth hospital, Baker City, to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McPhee, a daughter. "Jack" says the little one came into the world as fat as butter, had a double chin and could turn over in bed the second day.

J. H. Brown, printer, promoter and politician is now in the cigar, candy and fruit business on Granite street. It is said that he is treating all friends who call on him to two-bit cigars and other goods from his stock in trade.

Parties traveling over the county road between Sumpter and Whitney, complain that the lumber company, by dragging logs along the road, instead of using their skidway, are making that thoroughfare next to impossible and quite dangerous.

Lew Walker informs THE MINER that the letters, purporting to be written by him to parties in the east knocking the Overland and other properties in this district, are rank forgeries, and he says he will make it hot for the person who wrote them, if the original letters can be obtained.

D. P. Jones, a capitalist of Duluth, Minnesota, spent several days here last week and purchased the controlling interest in a mining property, the full data of which is not yet ready for the public. Mr. Jones has gone to San Francisco, but will return to Sumpter in a short time.
