

COVERS THOROUGHLY
THE GOLD FIELDS of the
INLAND EMPIRE

EASTERN
INVESTORS
IN OREGON MINES
Pay for
AND READ IT

TALK OF THE TOWN.

T. W. Davidson is now in the east on mining business.

D. W. Mulcahy, mining man, has gone on a ten days' trip to Spokane.

Engineer Frank E. Hobson is now making surveys in the Strawberry Mountain country, in the neighborhood of Prairie City.

Indisposition has caused David Baird, the popular passenger conductor on the S. V. Ry., to take a lay off. His brother William is acting in his stead.

D. M. Watters has moved his assay plant and chemical appliances to the Cracker Oregon mine, where he will make all tests of ores from that property.

Mrs. Cushman, of Sumpter, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. A. Brodeck, at Everett, Washington, has decided to make that city her future home.

Charles Springer, of Telluride, Colorado, who has spent all his life in the mines of the Centennial State, came in on Sundays train and will engage in his vocation in this district.

On account of two of the members being ill, the ways and means committee on permanent organization, of the mining association, could not secure a quorum yesterday.

W. M. Roelsma, a thorough millman, arrived in Sumpter on Sunday last. He has taken a position at the Virginia Mill in the Greenhorns, and will be located there in the future.

Quartzburg miners are determined to have an organized mining district. A meeting was held on the 23d instant, and a committee appointed to trace out the boundary lines etc.

Miss Jessie McCubben, the Alamo "Midnight Queen" has been offered $5000 cash or $15000 on a bond for the property she located on Quebec mountain on the first day of this year.

Colonel Roy Miller and Frank Shelton are on the K. P. district meeting which will be held at Huntington Saturday. A team from the Sumpter lodge will participate in the drilling contest.

R. L. Turner, Don L. Willard and E. Buttz sr., have filed articles of the incorporation of the Little Cracker gold mining company. Capitalization $1,000,000. The head office will be at Sumpter.

The Golden Wizzard mine is now equipped with its new deep sinking plant. This hoist is capable of working to a depth of 1000 feet. It will be put in motion on next Tuesday for the first time.

Two more cars of the wonderfully rich concentrates from the North Pole mine were shipped from Sumpter yesterday. This makes four cars that have been forwarded to the Smelter this month.

C. R. Townsend leaves about the first of the coming month for the Greenhorns, where he will take charge of the Parker rotary stamp mill which has been erected to crush ores from the Virginia Mine.

Elmer E. Cleaver is in town today, arranging to put on the market his rich Copper Ridge property, in the Quartzburg district. Lon Cleaver is still suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism and will probably have to make a prolonged trip south.

Zoeth Houser, late United States marshal for Oregon and principal owner of the Standard mine in the Quartzburg district, has been in Sumpter for several days past. He is negotiating a mining deal, but doesn't care to talk about it until consummated.

The funeral of the late Alfred Lake was held yesterday. Rev. W. H. Heppe, preached the funeral sermon at the Methodist Church. The Case Furniture company were the funeral directors and undertakers. Mr. Lake's remains were interred in the Blue Mountain cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Richards entertained about forty of their friends at progressive whist last Saturday evening, the occasion being their wooden wedding, which was one of the most enjoyable social events of the season. They were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Killen, and Miss Jessie Brock who served punch to the players during the evening. The host and hostess were the recipients of many handsome presents in addition to an almost unlimited number of clothes pins and potato mashers. A local orchestra of four pieces furnished excellent music during the evening. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening's entertainment. Mrs. James Logie won the first prize for the ladies and Mr. Harry Hendryx the gentlemen's first prize. Mrs. N. J. Sorensen and Mr. Will Killen carried off the consolation prizes. Those invited were; Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Killen, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Scoutt, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence M. Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour H. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Neil J. Sorensen, Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kear, Mr. and Mrs. Eberman, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Basche, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McCammon, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Miller, Dr. and Mrs. Greenlee, Dr. and Mrs. Brock, Mr. and Mrs. James Logie, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hendryx, Miss Calder, Miss Greenlee, Miss Jessie Brock, Mr. Will E. Davidson, Dr. E. W. Mueller, Mr. Carr Neil, Mr. William Killen, Mr. J. A. Howard, Mr. W. C. Calder and Judge Fawcett.

(1887)
FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF SUMPTER
Capital Stock - - $25,000

OFFICERS
J. H. ROBBINS, - - President
J. W. SCRIBER, - - Vice-President
R. H. MILLER, - - Cashier
H. S. DURGAN, - - Assistant Cashier

Safety Deposit Vaults Gold Dust Bought
Does a General Banking and Exchange Business

ONLY THIS WEEK

Our Clearance Sale has been crowned with Marked Success. This week ends the Month of January, when the opportunity will have passed for securing such bargains in discounts as we are now giving. If you need anything in our various lines, come and see what we will do for you. We will sell you : : : : : : : : : : :

A Suit of Clothes worth $15.00 for $10.00
A Suit of Clothes worth 10.00 for 7.50
A Suit of Clothes worth 6.50 for 4.50
A Pair of Shoes worth 5.00 for 4.50
A Pair of Shoes worth 4.00 for 3.50
Hats at 25 per cent Discount and other Goods at Slaughter Prices : : : : :

HOBSON MERCANTILE COMPANY

A FINE LINE OF ..GROCERIES..
ALWAYS IN STOCK

Fresh Vegetables Arriving Daily. Prompt Delivery.
Give Us a Trial and We Will Please You.

EDLIN & STARBUCK
Opera House Block Phone 351 SUMPTER, OREGON

YOU WILL ALWAYS FIND A COMPLETE ASSORTMENT
— OF — Chinaware, Crockery and Glassware
— AT —
Hawley's
We make a Specialty of Hotel and Boarding House Supplies
THE PLACE IS Hawley's

Mercer Drug Co.

DRUGS AND STATIONERY

GRANITE STREET SUMPTER, OREGON