If this CHART of diamonds is destroyed in any way, we will send you another upon receipt of stamp for postage.

This is the greatest offer ever made to the people of this county. Not to take advantage of it simply means you may lose $700 by your carelessness. By special arrangements we are able to offer The Twice-a-Week Spokesman Review of Spokane, Wash., the best family paper published in the northwest, and The Daily Miner for six months, or the Weekly Miner for one year for $2.50, and give our subscribers an opportunity to win some very valuable prizes.

An upright piano and pinola and $150 dollars in cash will be given away free to the people who can count above diamonds.

The piano and pinola will be given to the subscriber counting the nearest correct, or, in case of a tie, to the one using the best method in counting.

$150 in cash prizes—After the piano and pinola are awarded, the next best count will get $50 in cash, next $25, next $15, next $10, next $5, the next ten will get $3 each, the next 15 will get $1 each; and to the person in this county sending best count, or, in case of tie, best plan, and not winning at least a $10 prize, will be awarded a fine mantle clock. A total of 32 prizes. Surely out of all these you can win one.

Awards will be made as follows: The person coming nearest correct number and suggesting best plan of counting gets first prize, the next nearest second prize, and so on down the list.

The Piano will be awarded to those who count nearest correct to the number. If there should be a tie in the count for any prize it will be awarded to the person suggesting best plan of counting the dots. This tries your wits.

An Elegant Melville-Clark Piano and Apollo Piano Player

After all arrears are paid, $2.50 pays for one year's subscription to The Twice-a-Week Spokesman-Review and our paper and entitles you to one count, or $4.75 pays for both papers for two years and entitles you to three counts, and by taking one on each side of what you think is the correct number you are more likely to win, and, besides, if you win, you get the grand special prize of $15, which you do not get if you only have one year paid in advance.

Grand special prize—To the one winning the piano and pinola will be given an additional cash prize of $15, providing they have three advance subscription counts entered. That is, have all arrears paid and two years in advance to the Twice-a-Week Spokesman-Review and our paper for the two. If you win the piano and pinola, and have paid one year at $2.50, the judges will give you the piano and pinola only. If you win the piano and pinola, and have two years' subscription paid for in advance, you get $15 extra. It will pay to have the three advance counts.

Please note—There is no element of chance, of guess work or lottery about this. It is a test of skill, pure and simple. If you can count the diamonds correctly you win. The number of prizes are so large you are bound to hit it somewhere.

Conditions—The contest is open to all, both old and new subscribers. Old subscribers in arrears must pay arrears and in advance to get counts as above. Advance subscription must be at $2.50 per year, which pays for one year to the Twice-a-Week Spokesman-Review and six months to the Daily, or one year to the Weekly Miner and entitles you to one count; $4.75 pays for both papers two years and entitles you to three counts and makes you eligible for the grand $15 special price.
