Aurora, Or., Thursday July 2, 1903

Don't forget to have the lim-ment bottle handy Saturday.

The official flower of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition has been definitely selected.
It is the Cactus Dahlia, a flower which grows profusely around Puget Sound.

Oregon will have good crops this year and the indications are that good prices will prevail for everything with the exception of hops. We look for improvement in the hop market later.

This is the season when the small boy celebrates the anniversary of his independence with firecrackers and tin horns galore when the old man forgets his crutches and the old lady her "rheumatiz."

John W. Gates the well known millionaire amused himself by throwing money away in his native town. We are exceedingly sorry he wasn't born in Aurora, and in the habit of making frequent visits here.

In addition to the prizes offered by the management of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition for the poultry show which will be held during the latter part of the fair, many valuable cups have been donated by persons throughout the country.

A Texas exchange says "Kentucky is a disgrace to the Union," because Governor Wilson pardoned Caleb Powers. Kentucky might redeem herself by giving this particular editor some of the medicine Caleb Powers has been receiving; but we are inclined to think that his presence in the Blue Grass State would be a greater disgrace than the pardoning of Caleb Powers.

The Denver newspaper men are amusing themselves by declaring that Bryan has the united opposition of the leaders of his party and may not receive the nomination. While nobody believes these reports, at the same time their promulgation may be a source of gratification to the writers. When it comes to "pipe dreamers" in the newspaper profession, Denver is entitled to first place.

If the recommendations of the adjutant generals of Oregon and Washington are carried out, national guardmen will have two 50 weeks at American Lake this summer, instead of ten days' encampment that has been ordered.
There is sufficient money this year for a two-weeks' encampment, and believing that the additional four days will be highly beneficial to the men, the head officers and guards have asked that the time be extended.

The advertising managers of James Schoolcraft Sherman hit upon a happy idea of getting him before the country when they sent out dispatches stating that he was very sick and not likely to live. To a great many people this may look alright, but the man who makes a study of advertising will question whether Sherman was sick at all or not. Some of the papers reported him dead, thinking probably he would die before the next issue of their "esteemed contemporary" was issued.

At a wedding up in Washington last week, a jilted female rival attended the festivities and expressed her disapproval of the groom's choice by giving him a healthy slug in the jaw just as the festivities were at their height. The groom had his mouth open at the time and his teeth were jammed together with such force that he bit off the end of his tongue. The young men of Oregon who have been acting carelessly with the affections of different young ladies had better take warning and change their ways if they ever cross the Columbia for a bride.

Chautauqua Announcement

The Southern Pacific and O. R.
& N. Railway Companies have granted a one and one third round trip rate from all points in Oregon to Gladstone Park on the certificate plan. Patrons purchasing tickets will be careful to get a certificate from their home office and have it signed by the Secretary of the Assembly before starting home.

Passenger trains Nos. 11 and 12 (Roseburg locals) and 17 and 18 (Cottage Grove locals) will stop at Gladstone Park during the session. Tickets may be purchased at any O. R. & N. and S. P. station in Oregon to Gladstone Park during the meeting. Baggage may be checked also in the usual manner.

The Portland Railway Light & Power Company will furnish rapid and constant service from Portland and Oregon City to Gladstone Park, by motor line, during the day and until the session for the day is closed and all persons who desire are removed from the grounds.

Fare from Portland (motor line) 25 cents round trip; Oregon City 5 cents each way.

Freight cars on the motor line will run into the Park at the beginning and close of the session to bring in camp equipage. Portland freight depot, at East end of Madison Street bridge.

All patrons are advised to camp on the grounds when convenient, and to come at least one day before the session opens.

THE OKLAHOMA WAY

The following report on an Oklahoma bank failure shows the way they do things in that new commonwealth and the way they should be done in Oregon.

The International Bank of Canton was reported to the bank commissioner by one of his examiners for violating the banking law of the state, par'cularly in managing officers borrowing from the depositors' money.

The bank commissioner at once visited the bank in person and found that the total deposits were about $37,000, of which the president, L. A. Connors, owed over $3,000, and the cashier, L. Elzy, owed over $4,000—in other words, about 30 per cent had been borrowed by the two managing officers. The bank commissioner demanded that they immediately replace the money. They failed to do so.

He closed the bank at 2:15 Thursday evening; telephoned the state banking board; received instructions to immediately proceed to pay all approved deposits.
In 42 minutes from the closing of the bank the bank commissioner was ready to pay approved deposits. By Friday evening 60 per cent of the depositors had appeared, approved their claims and received their money.

By the end of the second day 90 per cent of all the deposits had been paid. A few depositors who lived in the country don't seem to be in any hurry about drawing their deposits.

One farmer is reported as answering over the rural telephone that he was too busy to come after his money, but will want it a week or two.

In the meantime both the president and the cashier have been arrested for violating the state banking law, and were placed under heavy bond.

There will probably be no loss to the state guaranty fund, and no assessment required on other banks. Liquidation will likely reimburse the state fund within 30 days. This loss will probably not exceed the capital stock.

MARKS PRAIRIE

Summer has just arrived and our farmers are cutting hay to be at the hand.

Mrs. Jack Kerr has been visiting relatives at St. Paul the past few days.

Geo. Oglesby and sons will soon take their annual fishing trip to the headwaters of Eagle Creek, they will start about the 12th of July and will be absent about two weeks.

Henry Kraug has built an addition to his barn.

The festive strawberries have about played out and our women folks are rustling for wild blackberries.

The county commissioner was seen on our prairie last week inspecting county roads.

Charles and Frank Oglesby went to Portland Tuesday to purchase a fine buggy.

Chris Kocher bought a fine buggy at Canby last week. It's a daisy and makes some of our young men look like 30 cents with their cheap outfits.

The oat crop here is not good, turning red and looks like it will not amount to but very little; wheat is good and will make a big crop; hay is not up to the usual crop.

Almost all our people will celebrate at Hubbard the 4th.

Some of our educated dudes will attend the Chautauqua at Gladstone Park.

Ben Wolfert will have a big hay crop. Ben is a rustler from way back and is prospering. While some of our old missus's faams look worse than a widow woman's ranch.

Mr. Lucke is putting up a dwelling here on his fine farm.

NEEDY

Where are you going to celebrate?

Mr. and Mrs. Nebitt and Mr.
Mrs. A. Elliot, visited at Dr.
Gouchers' during Sunday.

passed through Needy in their carriage.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Smith visited at Needy last week.

May Price is visiting in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Limpke visited at Phil Mohrs, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiatt from Baker City are visiting their many friends at Needy. Mrs. Hiatt was Leona Mohr.

The ball game at Needy last Sunday between Needy Red Sox and Liberal was a farce, the score was 32 to 3 in favor of Needy, Batteries, Needy—Catlin, Mitts and Gotwald. Liberal—Harry Grim, Callahan and Grover.
Catlin for Needy struck out 14 men—walked 1.

Buff Orpingtons Received With Enthusiasm on Farms.
By A. G. GILBERT.

Long experience has shown that no varieties of fowls are better suited to the requirements of farmers and others than Barred and White Plymouth Rocks, White Wyandottes and Buff Orpingtons. Both Barred Plym-

BUFF ORPINGTON COCK.

outh Rocks and White Wyandottes are to be found in every locality, and eggs from them may be had at reasonable cost. No variety seems to have a greater hold on the farming community than the Barred Plymouth Rock.
The Orpingtons are comparatively newcomers, but have rapidly made their way to a first place in the utility class.
Particularly may this be said of the buff variety.

The English group of fowls, among which are the Orpingtons, may be said to embrace many different kinds, and for the most part they have been valued for their egg laying and table qualities. As with the American breeds, the aim seems to have been a combination of egg laying and market types with small frame and superior quality of flesh. In this respect the English and French breeds may be said to be unexcelled. Both nations are also skilled in crossing varieties, with the aim of producing flesh with small frames and a fine quality of meat of white color.

Buff Orpingtons are one of many varieties and probably the most popular of the Orpington family. They are rapidly replacing many worn-out strains and mongrels on our farms and have taken a front place in the utility poultry ranks as winter layers and market fowls. There is great demand for eggs and fowls of this breed. They have light colored legs and white flesh.
Chickens are hardy and grow rapidly.
Eggs are of medium or larger size, according to strain.

White Orpingtons are a most promising variety and are likely to become popular on account of their merits as layers and table fowls. They are not

BUFF ORPINGTON HEN.

yet well known, but will soon make many friends. Their characteristics are about the same as those of the buff variety, with the exception of the color of the plumage, which is pure white.
Judges, Spangled and Rose Comb Buff and White Orpingtons are varieties of the same family, which are yet in few hands. All claim more or less merit. The buff and white varieties are likely to be first in favor of fanciers and breeders for some time to come, as they are best known and have certainly made a favorable impression.

Witty and Caustic.

A woman's suffrage lecturer, according to the Boston Globe, recently brought down the house with the following argument: "I have no vote, but my groom has. I have a great respect for that man in the stables, but I am sure if I were to go to him and say, 'John, will you exercise the franchise?' he would reply, 'Please, mum, which horse be that?'"

A Variation in Sport.

"What happened when you passed a law against gambling in your state?"
"The bookmakers got right to work asking bets on whether it would be enforced or not."—Washington Star.

A Satisfactory Herd.

Choice cows can seldom be bought at reasonable figures, unless it be at a dispersion sale. The owners know their worth and will not part with them. This being the case, the only way we can get a satisfactory herd is to raise it. This is not only more satisfactory, but it is much more economical.

Her Game Blocked.

The timid looking little woman on the Euclid car noticed that her purse was not in her bag where she had placed it. Instead, it was hanging from her arm on a chain—hanging in full view where it would tempt the nimble fingers of the pickpockets assigned to that bent. With great forethought she picked up the purse and started to put it in the bag. But the purse didn't go in, because it was attached to the arm of the persimmony faced woman standing next to her. Of course the woman with the bag stopped right there and dropped the stranger's purse.
"You'd better let that alone," spoke up the persimmony faced woman. "I've been watching you ever since you got on, and you needn't think I didn't see what you were trying to do."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
