

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Jim Smith and family of Macksburg was in Aurora Tuesday enroute to Salem. They had a good camping outfit with them and will spend the entire week at the fair.

Miss Fritz who is book keeper for Frank Miller left for Portland Thursday evening.

Phil Bower and Archibald Atkinson went to Portland Saturday.

Mr. Carl Huelter while driving home from Aurora Tuesday, was approached by some gypsies in regard to a horse trade, after driving on he noticed that he had been relieved of a sack of flour from the back of his buggy.

Gene Garrett, Ralph Kocher, Lee and Ray Fish are camping on the fair grounds at Salem.

Mrs. Fred Will, Jr. spent Thursday and Friday with friends in Portland.

The large fourteen passenger automobile that caught fire and burned near the crossroads between here and Barlow Sunday morning, was leased from the Lenox Hotel people to be run as a bus from Salem to the Fair grounds. A quick stop on the steep grade was said to be the cause of the fire, and the machine and the camping outfit and effects of the people in the auto was a total loss. The men who had leased the machine had been required to give a five thousand dollar bond for its safe return.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Scheurer are back now for the winter. Mr. Scheurer has been in eastern Oregon where he goes every summer with a threshing machine, and Mrs. Scheurer has been visiting her people and friends.

Frank Miller took a party to Salem Tuesday in his auto. Those of the party were Jonas Will and wife, Lizzie Will, Bertha Stark, Percy and Leona Will.

Arthur Kraus and George Fry are at Salem taking in the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Yergen, Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Crissel of Portland are spending the week at Salem.

The Best Steam Merry Go Round IN OREGON

NOW AT AURORA THIS WEEK INCLUDING SUNDAY.

Every train takes a load of hop pickers now and still there a number of yards that are only beginning to be picked.

J. R. Marsh and a part of his family went up to Silverton to visit Mrs. Marsh and the rest of the family that are there in the hop yards taking their vacation.

The ladies would surely be tempted to purchase if they would look at the new chevron serges, just the latest things out, shown at Sadler & Kraus'.

Aurora is indulging in a merry go round, down near the electric light plant and the children can now be happy.

Senator Fulton and party are touring this part of Oregon viewing the country. They shipped their touring cars from Astoria to St. Helens, where they began their overland journey, reaching here Sunday night, they will visit the state fair this week.

IN DREAMLAND

'Tis sweet to linger in the soft effulgence of the twilight glow, When each day's task is done, and music sweet and low Speaks Love's eternal yearnings and Devotion's mute desire, Kindling the altar of the heart with evening's vestal fire.

From out the balmy night there comes to me A thousand cheerful voices, speaking sweet mystery, Led by their joyous laughter and their light and love, I soar to realms more beautiful than the starry heights above.

Sleep, on the wings of Night, then smiles on me; We fly away to flowery realms, beside an emerald sea. And sweet, indeed, it is to meet life's dear ones there, To walk and talk with them again, and feel that they are near.

Mrs. Thompson and daughters Grace and Gladys of Needy spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Fred Will, Jr.

John Johnson is spending this week with Aurora friends.

The new things shown in shoes this fall are snappy. The shoe department of the Sadler & Kraus store, is full of the best makes, the best styles and the best wearing footwear, and would do credit to a much larger town. Giving the people the benefit of the very best right at home for the least money.

A quiet but a pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday at two thirty o'clock at the Presbyterian Church when Clara Ida Irvin, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Irvin was united in marriage to Dr. Archibald Anand Atkinson of Paris, Calif., by the Rev. Zug of Albany. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Melvin McCord of Portland and "Oh Promise Me" was beautifully sung by Ellen Brobst of Oregon City. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and autumn leaves giving the appearance of a forest in autumn time. After the ceremony refreshments were served in the Club Rooms below, which were also tastefully decorated with roses and ferns. Those in attendance from abroad were Mr. and Mrs. Hale, Miss Bess Shepherd, Mrs. Melvin McCord and Will Tull of Portland; Miss Ellen Brobst of Oregon City; Mrs. Eugene Moshberger of Woodburn; Mr. and Mrs. Will Wuster, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wurster, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cole; Misses Lilla Irvin, Ella Brackett, Hazel Giesy, Harriet Will, Tillie Fry and Anna Goetz.

Mrs. Joe Ryan was over from Butteville a few hours Tuesday.

Kenneth Cole of Turner is visiting his cousin, Nate Cole.

Mrs. Otis Smith and son Donald are visitors at the Salem fair.

Mrs. Lee Eckerson who has spent a fortnight with her mother, Mrs. Henry Beck, has returned to Canby.

Andy Bachert while here for hop picking met with a painful, but not serious accident while climbing over a fence Friday morning, he fell forward and dislocated his arm making it impossible for him to continue his work in the hop fields.

Mrs. Ed Yoder and children spent Sunday in Canby.

Percy Ritter is very low with typhoid fever at the home of his parents in Needy.

Henry Hurst was up from Portland Sunday.

WOODBURN DEPARTMENT

'Worth Looking At'

Yes, if young couples would look at it the right way, a good bank account is "well worth looking at." It is right after marriage—before any family comes along—that saving should be begun. It is the husband who must do it, but the wife can help him greatly. Proper economy in household affairs, dress, etc., will soon swell the bank account. We invite your deposits and promise you the best rate of interest.

When Butte Was A Barren Desert.

For five weeks last winter the city of Butte, Mont., was a barren desert. It was the driest place on earth. The water supply was all right, but owing to a strike all the newspapers were suspended.

Butte's experience proved that in this day and age the local newspaper is a public necessity. Nobody knew what was happening. False rumors spread like bad butter. Fake stories about citizens circulated by word of mouth until several duels almost resulted. There were no newspapers to tell the truth about things.

Business suffered worst of all. Merchants tried handbills, which didn't fill the bill. They worked the billboard overtime, but only bored the public. The people cried for newspapers as babies cry for—(See ad.)

For once in the history of the world it was demonstrated beyond peradventure that a town without a live newspaper is a dead one. Stores could not do business without properly advertising their wares, and they could not advertise properly without newspaper space.

Butte merchants are now advertising to make up for lost time. Business men who didn't think much of advertising before have learned its value and are using newspaper space.

The experience of Butte carries a lesson for every other town—this one, for instance:

The Separator Question

IF YOU were going to buy a separator, wouldn't you want to get the best for your money? It would be justice to you, your wife and family to do this. A post card, costing you one cent, will give you a chance to read up about the Empire, to study its construction, cost, appearance, etc. You should do this before purchasing. We claim lightest running, close skimming, easily cleaned, simplicity, and durability. If you read our catalogue, or see our machine and cannot agree with us, very well, you have learned something and done us no injury. May we at least send you a catalogue.
