Members of the Legislative Committee of the Oregon Good Roads Association and State Grange, appointed at a largely attended state conference, have come to Portland to spend a full without unnecessary delay.

Oregon and Washington were each given a hearing before President Roosevelt's Commission on Country Life, and expressed themselves as more than pleased with the co-operation they received in these two states. They were particularly fortunate to being enabled to meet the leadnumerous fruit meetings this season- The whole country is awaiting the commission's report with genuine interest.
