KASPARILLA

This sterling household remedy is most successfully prescribed for a "world of troubles." For derangements of the digestive organs it is a natural corrective, operating directly upon the liver and alimentary canal, gently but persistently stimulating a healthful activity. Its beneficial influence extends, however, to every portion of the system, aiding in the processes of digestion and assimilation of lood, promoting a wholesome, natural appetite, correcting sour stomach, bad breath, irregularities of the bowels, constipation and the long list of troubles directly traceable to those unwholesome conditions. Kasparilla dispels drowsi-ness, headache, backache and despondency due to inactivity of the liver, kidneys and digestive tract. It is a

It is Mr. Taft's idea that the three departments should work harmoniously, so that no one shall be going over ground covered by another and so that there shall be no conflict of authority. Ultimately cases handled by these departments must now go to the courts, but it is Mr. Taft's idea that a large number of cases can be disposed of finally and equitably by the departments under the right sort of law. 6. Reform in the monetary and banking systems of the country. This recognized as one of the great tion, but it is not expected that it

7. Conservation of the natural resources of the country, including the Appalachian bill. The question of the constitutional power of the federal government in this matter is not yet clear. It can be said that Mr. Taft is in sympathy with the end to be accomplished, but that he will recommend no legislation until he is satisfied as to the exact length to which the federal government can go.

8. Improvements of rivers and har bors. The new administration is committed to an energetic policy of improvement, particularly of inland waterways. The Ohio river nine-foot channel from Pittsburg to Cairo is to the front at present. It will cost $61, 000,000, and the next president favors the issuance of bonds to push the
