Harping on the "Buy Oregon Products" String

All Portland, the Associated Industries, Ad Club, Etc., insist on all buying Oregon Made Goods. Well and Good. But how can we? What are Oregon Made Goods? There are 2,000 manufacturing plants in Oregon now "making things." Not an average man can name fifty of them. Over two-thirds of the Oregon buyers live in small towns and on the farms. If Oregon factories want Oregon people to buy Oregon products, they must run an advertising card in Oregon weekly papers—the buyers' "home paper." A list of Oregon products; a description in each weekly paper (not patent side) would solve the "Buy Oregon Made Goods" question entirely and each home paper a booster.

Pure, Fresh Candy
When you walk up to the door and SHE answers the bell — it's lucky you have the candy. You'd be speechless otherwise. You hand it to her with, "Sweets to the sweet," (if you have the nerve) and she opens it. Gee! You're glad you bought it here 'cause you know it's fresh and pure!
It's pretty small, after you have won her with sweet food and sweeter words, to forget that she likes either after you're married.
Stop in today and get a box of chocolates or bon bons.
If there's sickness at your home—nerves or constipation, or that run down feeling, or heart trouble, take a package of Dr. Miles' Medicines along with the candy.
