THE AURORA OBSERVER

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1916.

N. C. WESCOTT

EDITOR AND PUBLISHER

Entered as second class matter March 28, 1911, at the postoffice at Aurora, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Announcement

Owing not only to the high price of paper, but also to the uncertainty of securing it when needed, many country newspapers, (the Observer included) have decided to cut off all dead-head and complimentary subscriptions, reduce the number of exchanges, discontinue samples and all other mailings except paid subscriptions; and on January 1, 1917, all subscribers more than one year in arrears will be dropped from our subscription list. This action is made absolutely necessary by the abnormal condition in the paper market and the fact that the production of print paper is far short of the actual consumption. This shortage actually exists and no immediate relief appears probable. Publishers of dailies and big weeklies buy their print paper under contract to use a certain amount in a given time at a fixed price, and the manufacturer is bound to supply these publishers. What is left is sold to the small papers at what ever price the manufacturer chooses to fix. Two years ago paper could be bought at less than $2.75 per 100 pounds while today it is $6.50, with the impossibility of getting a supply at all staring newspapers in the face.

Under these conditions, the Observer is taking the action outlined above, in order to make sure that our legitimate, paid subscriber may not miss a single issue.

ONE HOME PRODUCT

The lack of numerous Oregon manufacturers lead a maker to call the attention of a farmer audience to this in the following manner:

When you awake in the morning it is to the alarm of a Connecticut clock. You rise to don Chicago overalls, and a Detroit suspender. You wash your face with an Indiana wash basin. You sit down to a Michigan to eat your Chicago bacon and Kansas bread. Your bread is made of Minneapolis flour, baked in a St. Louis oven. You go to harness on a Missouri mule. You are covered with an Eastern mortgage (maybe) printed in Boston or New York. Then you crawl under a blanket that has been kept awake all night by the product you have on the ews, Comment, Gossip, Reports, Rumors, Explanations, Sales, Hearsay, Complaints, Knocks, Eulogies, Questions and Rejoinders, Both Probable and Improbable, Concerning Officials, Candidates—and Others!

While there is no doubt of the reelection of Judge Kell as circuit judge, many electors seem undecided as to their choice for the second circuit judge. Both Geo. G. Bingham and Judge Galloway are known in every nook and corner of Marion county, and there is every prospect of a hard fight for the Marion county vote. In Linn county there may be an equally close vote.

Ivan G. Martin, Salem attorney, and Republican candidate for the legislature, was here Sunday on his way home from the Republican doings at Portland the day before. Martin, like all good politicians, never fails to see all the newspaper men "on the way." He has not only made himself solid with the newspapers, but with the people, by his frank, open manner and genial attitude toward life.

Hawley voted for the Adamson 8 hour law thus allying himself with the democratic majority in Congress. But it is safe to say that he is not boasting of that fact in his Oregon speeches, while Hughes is flaying alive that congress for passing the Adamson Act!

The Capital Journal says L. H. McMahon should be elected district attorney because he was the originator and leared in the movement to provide a municipal bathing beach at Salem. If that is an example of his qualifications for the place, the Journal ought to publish the others—to make sure of his election!

Napoleon Davis, one of the old line of true-blue democrats of this section was here from Butteville last week. He predicts the election of Wilson, and the discomfiture of the republican party.

BARLOW

What state or country can boast of a more beautiful fall than Oregon has this year? Snow in Michigan and some other states.

Mrs. Lena Bond returned to her home in Spokane, Friday, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse here and relatives in Portland for the past three months.

Wood Young of Portland will make his home with his sister, Mrs. Jim Hayes this winter.

Friday night the Barlow people were entertained by Mr. Hedges, Mr. Jack. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Risley of Oregon, candidates for office on the democratic ticket.

Monday night Mr. Loder and Mr. Schenkel gave interesting and instructive talks to the voters especially so on the Brewers Amendment which we hope all intelligent and honest voters and people will turn down. It is an insult to decent people to have such a measure on the ticket.

NOTICE!

We are making a special $1.50 offer of a year's subscription to The Observer and to four standard magazines. This offer is open to all new or old subscribers. By subscribing to The Observer now you get $1.35 worth of magazines are all high class and will make a valuable addition to the library of any home. We want to call your attention also to the free dress pattern that is given to each subscriber.

We don't make a cent on these magazines. The only reason we offer them to our customers is for the sole purpose of saving our readers money. It is our intention to give our subscribers the advantage we receive from magazine publishers. It is for your benefit alone that we offer you these four magazines at such a big reduction.

Card Playing.

Card playing began in India in the ninth century. It was introduced into Europe by orientals some time prior to the thirteenth century. Saracens popularized the amusement in Spain and Italy. The taste for the game afterward spread to Germany, where it commenced to be indulged in about 1275. Its appearance in France was mentioned in the records of that country in 1393. Heraldic cards were first known in England in 1600.

Are You Thinking of Marriage?

START your wedded life right. The young man who is contemplating matrimony should bank his money. After he has furnished his home he should have something laid aside for possible adversity. Wedded life means added responsibility for him. The prospective bridegroom should open a bank account today. It means happiness in the future. We'll gladly explain our banking system.
