

If it is a man's gift—get it at the man's gift store—that means Price Bros.

“Something Practical”

These two words reflect the new spirit of Christmas giving.

And “something practical” for the man means something from a man's store—where else are his needs so well anticipated?

When you've selected from the list, at the side, the kind of gift you think he would like, let us help you pick it out, for where it comes from is just as important as what it is.

We had in mind the sensible gift and the sensible giver when we choose the large stock from which these suggestions are offered.

A National Institution

“Why, sir, the Union may be preserved from dismemberment by this proposed railroad.”—Joseph R. Underwood in the United States Senate, February 19, 1883.
“The road has been built through an Indian country with all the tribes banded together and hostile.”—General G. M. Dodge in Congress, 1868.

FOR half a century and more—ever since the first locomotive poked its nose west of the Missouri River—this railroad has worked continuously for the development of the territory which it serves, and for the improvement of the property. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are spent every year in telling the people of the East about the wonderful opportunities of the West. Prosperous cities and towns, thriving industries and fertile farms mark fifty years of notable progress. The Union Pacific System has led among western railroads in keeping its lines at the highest standard, whether business is good or bad, adequate provision is always made for maintenance of the Boulevard of Steel which links the East with the West. The Union Pacific System has also been first with practically every device which makes for security and comfort of travelers and for safety and expedition in the passage of freight. Success has justified this policy of efficiency, but the full measure of success has been attained only by the confidence and support of the people who live in the Union Pacific country, and to them this advertisement is directed in a spirit of grateful appreciation. The Union Pacific System is proud of its territory and of the people who live in its territory, and in turn is worthy of the pride with which it is regarded by the people it serves as a great national institution.

The past few days' cessation from rain have lowered the swollen streams so much that bridges have again come to the surface, while the graded roads become passable for auto and heavy vehicles, making travel possible once more.
With Christmas less than two weeks away, the ranch workers, both in and out of doors are rushed with business, coming family reunions and other festive gatherings make quantities of supplies necessary. Days must be spent in making the good things that will keep for the great feast.
Every spare moment is seized upon for finishing gifts to be sent away by mail.

School entertainments require rehearsal and new garments must be in readiness for the time.

Children as well as their elders have their time well in requisition. Besides school work many have parts on the Christmas programmes and all are helping in the great but joyous task of preparing for the gladdest, most sacred day of the entire year.

Judging from the cheerful faces, the busy hands and the hastening feet, every one, from the aged grandparent whose hair has grown white in the passing of many Christmas days to the tiny toddler whose first or second Christmas has come, is to have a joyous time, for hard indeed must be the heart that can harbor a grudge or fall in gentle treatment of a fellow mortal on this glad and sacred day.

Though we can not, as in the large cities, find those in want of supply

We Make Them

You may think you can get along without that new set of harness this winter, and possibly you can—BUT WILL IT PAY YOU?

The time lost in repairing and tinkering and cussing on old and broken and unreliable harness will just about pay for a new one. And time is money these days.

Then broken harness often causes runaways, and they often result fatally to the driver or the animals. No, unreliable harness does NOT pay. Buy a new set NOW, and buy it from US, where it is BEST and CHEAPEST.

Send us your Harness and Shoe Repairing by Parcel Post—We pay one way.

from our own stores, there are plenty in need of the gentle word or action that comes from a noble, tender heart, and these we believe, will not be wanting here.

Mr. Wesley Eby has moved his family into his own home, which has been standing empty for more than a year. A little son was born December 4th, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Walsh.

The Mother's Club had a very busy and pleasant time on the afternoon of Thursday, December 7th, at the home of the President, Mrs. John Hepler. The next meeting, the last in the present year, will take place December 21st at the home of the Secretary, Mrs. G. M. Baldwin. The Club, like every other organization in our place, is rushed with holiday work, so much so that an extra meeting will probably be called in the present week.

Mrs. Simon Miller, in whose family the gripe has been having a general run, is so much better now that her return to her place in the Club may be expected for the next session of the club.

AN INVITATION

Everyone interest in the organization of a reading room and gymnasium are invited to attend the meeting at the Pioneer Hotel lobby Tuesday evening Dec. 19. Both town and country people are included in this invitation.

Born to the wife of B. R. Wolfer, at Wolfer Prairie, Dec. 13, a 7-pound daughter.

“DOKIES” AND TYROS

A little folder sent out by the Portland Knights of Khorassan contains some hints, comments and advice for Tyros who will be initiated into the order and marched across the burning sands Saturday night, December 30. As there are a dozen or so from Aurora to join the hot-foot brigade if they don't get cold feet, a few of the “Dokey” pearls of wisdom are reproduced herewith, as “Smart Sayings.”

Joining the Dokies is like getting married, the first ceremonial is the most trying.—Lawyer Meloney.

Ivanhoe's Chancellor Commander Martin Larsen, is some JOLLY fellow. Too bad, the state has gone dry. “Aurora.”

Some people run into debt fast enough without an auto.—Walter Gleason.

Adam blamed it all on an apple, but now it is some “chicken” that starts all the trouble.—Major Pickett.

The Lord wont have anything to do with you if you don't pay your dues.—E. M. Lance.

For Married Tyros

Always come into the house smiling, it will make your wife wonder in whose company you have been.

Never explain where you have been when out late. If you do it once you will have to do it always. When you come to a “Dokey” ceremonial, lock your wife in the house and hang the keyhole outside where you can find it easily. That will please your wife and insure you a warm welcome home.

Never fail to remind your wife on her birthday how young and slender she looked the first time you met her. Loving memories are as honey to a woman's hungry heart.

When your wife is telling a story to pour guests always butt in and finish it yourself. A true woman appreciates such considerate aid.
