Use your telephone when you have items of news interest. The Observer desires and appreciates any such items you may telephone (or write) to us.

Sam McCracken and Miss Lora Price were married recently at Vancouver. The groom is a brother of Frank McCracken of Aurora and of Mrs. M. C. Crittenden of Hubbard.

William Lettmeyer, who has been an auxiliary clerk at the Oregon City post office, has been appointed regular clerk in charge of the general delivery department. This is a promotion well deserved.

Carl Braun, who died last week at Macksburg, was born in Germany in 1833 in the town of Graudenz. He is survived by Herman Braun and by a number of grand children. Interment took place at Hillsboro, Oregon. Rev. F. H. Lucas officiated at the funeral. Mr. Braun had lived some time at Macksburg and was highly respected.

Henry Hurst believes in preparedness for all future contingencies and has planted enough tobacco (of the black strap variety) to supply half the users of the weed in this city. Having grown a quantity of 100 proof stock last year in very rich soil, which proved so strong that even "Cap" Keil had to "reduce" it with "corncake," H. H. has this year found the most sterile piece of land on his place for the crop, and expects to raise a quality tobacco excelling Velvet or Prince Albert.

Modern Priscilla and Home Needle Work both one year $1.25.

Election on Monday and Registration for the war census on Tuesday have kept many of the ranchers away from their work and have also given them opportunity to view the advance that mother nature has made in the newly planted gardens and fields in two days time.

The Mothers' Club is to meet on June 7th, at the home of Mrs. Simon Miller. As some benevolent work involving more than the usual amount of time is to be done, Mrs. Miller has invited the club to an all day session. The proposed summer vacation of the Mothers' Club has been voted impossible, owing to increased number of calls upon their effort and time.

The third service of the Lutheran church in the Eby school house is to be held on the evening of Sunday, June 10th. The Rev. Fr. Lucas has met with so much that is encouraging both in the attendance upon and the interest in their services that he will no doubt continue them. The Sunday school at 3 p. m. also in the Eby school house has made a most promising beginning.

Although rushed with the belated planting, the ranchers with their families allowed themselves time to observe the day, May 30th, kept sacred to the memory of our nation's dead. The fine weather with its consequent good roads brought the family vehicles out in force. The exercises were especially impressive, rendered doubly so by the present war preparations in which our own country is bearing its part. The floral offerings surpassed, in profusion and in beauty those of any former celebration in this region.

If you want to plant corn, kale, barley, oats, potatoes, beans, sweet corn, wheat, or peas, but need seed, the Observer will put you in touch with people who have such seed to sell. We make no charge for this service.

NOW PAISLEY VEILS.

The newest thing in veils is Paisley shades, the design to be worn next the face and hair and not necessarily over the hat. This natty straw turban, so soldierly, really shouldn't be covered, even with veiling.

THE GOOD JUDGE FINDS W-B TOBACCO POPULAR AT THE POST EXCHANGE.

COLONEL, I HEARD YOU SPEAK OF WANTING SOME W-B CUT TOBACCO. SO I'VE BEEN SCOUTING AND HERE IT IS!

SERGEANT, YOUR LOYALTY IS APPRECIATED. I SHALL RECOMMEND YOUR PROMOTION.

YOUR soldier is all business, from reveille to taps—no room for excess baggage with him. He has no use for a big plug of coarse leaf, all loaded up with heavy syrup—what he wants is tobacco satisfaction. The little sappy chew of W-B CUT checks up with his idea of what's good. Out on a lonely outpost, it's mighty sociable and satisfying; and my, how it does last!
