MACKSBURG.

Fred Walsh has added his name to the already long list of auto owners in our place.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Sol. Strubar has been gladdened by the arrival of a little son.

Miss Elmore Miller left home on Friday last, for an extended visit with relatives in the middle west.

Leonard Nebs, who has been for some time in the hospital at Salem is so much better that his people are hopeful of his speedy return.

Miss May Schultz has come home for a few week's stay. Her sisters, the Misses Ella and Lila Schultz are filling positions in Canby.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hilton have come from their mountain ranch to spend a few days at their former home. Mr. Hilton is putting in the season's crops. They are making their headquarters with relatives not far from this place.

The Mother's Club had a very pleasant and busy session at the home of Mrs. Simon Miller on Thursday last. Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. Schoenbach and Mrs. Buckhee a daughter of Mr. Miller were present and rendered valuable assistance in the work. The next meeting is appointed for June 21st, at the home of Mrs. Ben Dreier.

The service conducted by Rev. Fr. Lucas of the Lutheran church was well attended on Sunday evening. The Sunday school is growing in number and in interest. Both these services are held in the Eby school house, for the present. The next service will be held July 1st. The Morning congregation continue to give their fine sacred concerts on Sunday evening at the Bethel Chapel.

The Rose Festival at Portland will take many of the ranchers with their families away from their toil for a day or more of this week. The new auto will be put into service, going and returning the same day. Those who are to be deprived of enjoying this wonderful exhibit may find indemnification in the unprecedented profusion and beauty of the roses at home.

Mother Nature, as if fully awake to our responsibility in the world-feeding has brought forward the newly-planted grain with a rapidity that would be incredible to any but an eye witness of the growth. The fields, so lately sown, are already green with the growing crop. Meantime the winter grain has fully recovered from the retarding effects of a belated spring. The pasture is responding to the combined influence of the long, sunny day in conjunction with fluting, frequent showers making the dairy output a most satisfactory asset of the farm. Early potatoes are in blossom, corn is growing at a magic pace. Onion weeding is going on. Many of the younger people are replenishing their bank accounts by working on the fields devoted to this crop. Beans are growing as if aware of the past they are destined to play in army supply, should the war continue throughout the present year.

BARLOW

Mrs. Welch and children of Macsburg is visiting Mrs. Coetler.

Miss Marian Evans of Muckleton, Wash., visited at Mr. Larsen's Friday.

According to suggestions from our Oregon Agricultural committee, the Sunshine Poultry Company will on June 18 take off a hatch of fancy strains of white leghorn and barred rocks, and to children or others, they will on the co-operative plan let out these chickens. Full particulars can be ascertained through inquiry. This is an excellent opportunity to get a start of fancy chicks. Mr. Morris of O. A. C. was here recently in the interest of the food preparedness. Mr. Morris urged people to take care and save everything let nothing go to waste, as everything eatable will be needed.

THIS FRUITY TURBAN.
