

RAILROAD TIME CARD

SOUTHERN PACIFIC

North Bound

No. 10, 7:26 a. m.
No. 28, 10:24 a. m. (on flag.)
No. 18, 2:33 p. m.
No. 14, 9:00 p. m. (on flag.)

South Bound

No. 17, 2:37 a. m.
No. 15, 9:44 a. m. (on flag.)
No. 19, 3:15 p. m.
No. 27, 5:15 p. m. (on flag.)
No. 9, 7:28 p. m.

MARKET REPORT

Eggs, per dozen, 33c
Butter, 2-lb. roll, 65c
Butter Fat,
Fat Hens, 14c to 15c
Spring Broilers, 16c
Ducks, 14c to 15c
Turkeys, old, 20c
Jeese 12c
Beans 8c to 12c
Cascara, 7c
Lard, 26c
Wheat, $2.25
Oats, 15c
Onions lb. 1 1/2c
Wool, 60c to 65c
Mohair 60c
Potatoes, new, $3.00

Town Topics

Mrs. Netta Miller was a visitor here Saturday from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shepherd were among those in Aurora Friday.

Miss Echo Giesy went to Clackamas Saturday to visit relatives for a few days.

Mrs. A. D. Yergen and grand children Phillip and Jane left this week for an outing at Ocean Park.

J. J. Spurb was a Portland visitor Saturday, motoring down in his Chevrolet. He was accompanied home by guests.

M. R. DeSart recently resigned as constable of the Donald district and S. S. Marty has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

It is reported that A. E. Harder has sold the farm which he recently purchased from Wm. Hunsaker, to a Silvertown man.

The regular weekly meeting of the Red Cross at the Old Pythian hall was attended by a good crowd and much work was accomplished.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Pierce and son are spending their vacation this week on the head waters of the McKenzie river with a party of friends.

The family of A. H. Giesy motored up from Portland last week in their new Overland, with Ulysses Giesy as driver. They remained over Sunday.

Percy Ottaway has completed the digging of a well on his two-acre tract on the Pacific Highway inside the city limits, and is preparing to build a house there this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Elliott, who returned last week from Antelope, and P. H. Miller left Friday for Saltair, Tillamook county, to join Mrs. W. E. Shaw and Mrs. Miller for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sadler and little daughter Peggy of this city and Mrs. Frank Settlemeier of Woodburn, motored on a three day trip to the Tillamook beaches Sunday, returning Wednesday.

Motor cycle officer Meads of Clackamas county last week nabbed 27 speeders, among whom were S. E. Brune, J. N. McKay, and Mrs. C. S. Jackson, wife of the publisher of the Portland Journal.

G. A. Ehlen, W. P. Wurster and James Ogle were Portland business visitors Saturday, though some of their friends (particularly Art Artus) suspect that they went to Columbia Beach to view the parade.

If you want a folder map of the U. S., showing continents, camps, aereo camps, presidios, forts and other forms of military organization, giving exact locations and other valuable data, write Wm. McMurray, General Passenger Agent, Portland. The maps are free.

Joe Gibson of Macksburg was a recent visitor here on business.

Miss Amelia Giesy came up from Portland Friday to visit relatives here.

Highest cash price paid for Chittenden bark at Moore's Drug Store, Woodburn, Oregon

Robert Colvin and wife and a party of friends motored in Saturday from Union Hill district.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Leabo and son Ralph were visitors here Saturday afternoon.

The Williams Brothers were here from Donald Sunday transacting business at Miller's garage.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Elliott returned last week Thursday from Antelope, Oregon, where they have been visiting Mrs. Elliott's parents.

Mrs. A. D. Yergen, Mrs. Glen Yergen and children and Dell Yergen motored over from Butteville Saturday to shop at the Aurora stores.

Among the well known farmers here on business the past week were Chas. Becke, M. D. Leabo, V. VanVleet, Wm. Steinbach, Frank Albee, G. A. Schuele and Henry Becke.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Feller of Donald and Miss Iva Feller, or Woodburn are touring Southern Oregon by auto, and visiting relatives in Jacksonville. They will also motor into California.

The Second Battalion, Third Oregon Infantry, under the command of Major Eugene Moshberger are now stationed at Palo Alto, California, having passed through here last Thursday enroute to the new training camp.

Among those who have passed the physical examination in Clackamas county for military service is Herman Kuhne, Route 2, Aurora; Marvin H. Herbaugh, R. 4, Aurora was rejected by the medical examiners.

A. B. Grim and Al Kraus have completed the repairs on the Will sisters store building damaged by the recent fire next door to it and Asquith & Blosser have finished repainting the damaged and new portions.

The prolonged dry weather has reduced the Marion county bean crop to a mere shadow in early indications. The pods are small and not filled well. Rains at once may help some, but the average crop will be light.

"Drinking these initiation beers," said a customer at the Artus Soda Parlors, "is like kissing one's sister—it tastes about the same but there isn't any kick in it." The identity of the customer was not made public.

The seriousness of the drouth may well be imagined when it is recalled that Adam Burkholder leaves his umbrella at home when he comes to town. No rain can be promised until he assumes his complete equipment.

Earth currents of electricity last week interrupted telegraph and telephone wire communication over the northwest for several hours at different times. At the same time great electric displays were seen in the sky.

Jay V. Fike, formerly school supervisor and now local industrial club leader for Marion county, has decided not to accept an offer of school supervision in Jackson county but will go to Wichita, near Portland as principal.

Speaking of the activities of the I. W. W.'s, Art Artus says that Aurora has the distinction of being the only town in Oregon having had a fire without the local newspaper having fastened it onto the I. W. W. organization.

Leonard Will was here a short time the past week from eastern Washington to visit relatives. He stated that the wheat crop will be very short in that section. All root crops also will be a short crop. He returned home Monday.

Postmaster Hickenstein of Salem recently received a check for $3000 as postage on the catalogues of an eastern mail order firm, which were shipped by freight to Salem, from which city they were mailed into the surrounding postal zones.

Peter Mathiot was here from Butteville Monday night on business.

Harold Knorr, who was injured last week by falling from a tree, is recovering rapidly.

Among those in town this week on business were Wm. Bruns, Geo. Oglesby and sons, and Geo. Muessig.

Theoda Gribble entertained Pauline Allen of Trenton, Mo. and Diana Snyder Saturday afternoon at luncheon.

Dr. B. F. Giesy was a business visitor in Portland Tuesday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Giesy and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy N. Hickok visited their parents at McMinnville Sunday. Mr. Hickok's little brother returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Wyman and daughter Helen who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hurst have returned to their home in Portland.

Flint Chapman of Salem was here Monday setting up a beautiful monument on the Giesy lot at the Aurora cemetery, in memory of the late Dr. Martin Giesy, and his wife who died recently.

Mrs. A. Maleta and daughter Helen, of South Dakota, left Tuesday for their home in the Black Hills, after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Matt Bann at Meridian. They are on their way home from California.

Governor Withycombe has ordered the hunting season closed next Tuesday, August 21 to remain so until September 1. After that date the season will open again if rain comes. If no rain falls the season will remain closed.

Hobart Crowley of Barlow, Channcey Lee Kroff of Hubbard, G. E. Frederickson of Aurora, Chas. W. Cooper of Hubbard, Palmer Julseth of Barlow and Russell C. Scramlin of Macksburg are among a new list of men called for examination today by the local board at Oregon City.

R. S. Yoder, the son of D. B. Yoder of Needy, was here Monday securing information at the Southern Pacific depot on passenger rates, sailing of steamers etc., to Honolulu. He has been appointed a teacher in the Honolulu schools and will leave soon for that city.

Dr. and Mrs. John Steiner have been the guests of their daughter Mrs. Fred Yohan for several days. Dr. Steiner will soon open an office here for the practice of medicine. He has property interests in Estacada but will locate here so as to be near his daughter who lives at Meridian.

Mrs. Wm. Kraus entertained a number of friends at her home Thursday afternoon, music, singing and social converse were features of the afternoon. Refreshments were served at six o'clock. The guests were Mrs. Chris Giesy, Mrs. J. S. Vandeleur, Mrs. J. W. Lee, Mrs. Fred Yergen, Mrs. Geo. Gooding, Mrs. Henry Beck, Mrs. Chas. Beck, Mrs. Godfrey Dentel, Mrs. Goetz, Mrs. H. C. Hurst, Mrs. Chas. Snyder, Mrs. Chris Zimmerman, Mrs. Henry Kraus, Mrs. Jos. Erbsland, Mrs. Geo. Kraus, Mrs. Peter Hunt, Mrs. Wm. Nibler, Mrs. Emanuel Keil, and Misses Elizabeth Forstner and Tillie Giesy.

The Oregon Agricultural College

Where trained specialists with modern laboratories and adequate equipment give instruction leading to collegiate degrees in the following schools:

AGRICULTURE, with 15 departments;
COMMERCE, with 4 departments;
ENGINEERING, with 6 departments, including Civil, Electrical, Highway, Industrial Arts, Irrigation, and Mechanical Engineering;
FORESTRY, including Logging Engineering;

HOME ECONOMICS, with 4 major departments, including training in the Practice House;

MINING, with three departments, including Chemical Engineering;

PHARMACY.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC, offers instruction in the principal departments of vocal and instrumental music.

THE MILITARY DEPARTMENT, enrolled 1085 cadets in 1916-17, and won recommendation for O. A. C. from the Western Department of the U. S. War Department as one of the fifteen "distinguished institutions" of higher learning. All cadets will be furnished complete uniforms by the U. S. Government and the junior and senior cadets, enrolled in the R. O. T. C., will be given commutation for subsistence, as well as all transportation and subsistence at the six weeks' summer camp. REGISTRATION BEGINS OCTOBER 8, 1917. Information on request. Address, Registrar, Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oregon.

FARGO NEWS

Mrs. Will Prah of Prah was here during the week.

Prof. Edwin Sherwood of Salem occupied the pulpit Sunday.

Mrs. Oliver Green and baby are visiting with relatives at Portland.

The last worm spray was begun during the week in the Fargo Orchards.

Miss Clare Mann of Portland is guest of the Misses Fern and Danella Rader.

D. W. Sanders and family spent Sunday at Vancouver, Wash., with friends.

Conrad Sanness of Canby spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. D. W. Sanders.

D. W. Sanders loaded a car of white fir for the Oregon City paper mill during the week.

Portland visitors during the week were Mrs. Mary Gilbertson, Mr. Stonehouse and Ralph Rader.

Mrs. D. M. Rader returned during the week from a delightful visit with her daughter in Washington.

The Red Cross Auxiliary finished their allotment of work Wednesday and will go for a new supply soon.

Miss Esther Holloway and brothers of Portland spent an enjoyable week of their vacation at the home of Wm. Richardson returning home Sunday.

Mrs. G. K. Fargo and children left for St. Paul, Minn., to be gone six weeks. G. K. Fargo left the first of week for Elgin, Ore., to be gone a month.

The Scholz threshing outfit threshed here during the week. Wheat going on an average of 20 bushels to the acre.

A meeting of the board of directors of the church will be held Sunday following church at which arrangements for filling the pulpit for the coming year will be discussed.

Loganberry picking was finished this week and the growers are as a rule very well satisfied with the yield considering the weather. The F. B. Fargo and J. P. Clark yards yielding larger crops than last year, and Mrs. Brinks tract yielding only a 50 per cent of last years crop. Inability to get pickers cut down the yield considerably as lots of berries are still on the vines.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Dimick will soon move into the residence owned by the late Dr. Martin Giesy, and Mr. and Mrs. Cammack will occupy the Zimmerman house, vacated by the Dimicks.

Seasonable Suggestions

Garden Hose
Oil Stoves
Screen Doors
Fly Spray
Fishing Tackle
Tents
Camp Stoves

Hardware G. A. EHLEN Implements

The Wide Awake Hardware Store

When in Woodburn

CALL AT THE

HOME BAKERY
Where you Get Everything Fresh Daily

[TRY THE 10c LOAF]

Light Lunches Served. DuBois & Olson, Prop's.
Phone Blue 46 Woodburn Exchange.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF OUR CLUBBING OFFER

HOUSEWIVES

REDUCE YOUR HOUSEHOLD EXPENSES

taking advantage of every bargain offer made by the merchants advertising in this paper always buying advertised goods, from the merchants who advertise their goods.

selecting with help of the Observer's advertising columns, the HIGH QUALITY merchandise which in the long run means a saving of money.

keeping posted on these BARGAINS, on these ADVERTISED, QUALITY GOODS, by reading the Observer.