Among those transacting business here the past week were B. J. Grim, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rager, John Murray, A. D. Yergen, H. L. Colvin, Geo. X. Gooding, Wm. Bruns.

Offers of 17 cents have been made for 1918 hops on contracts in this section within the last few days, to at least two local hop growers. But neither cared to tie up their crop.

Mrs. M. E. Phillips received letters this week from her husband Lieut. M. E. Phillips at Petersburg, Virginia, where he is still stationed, working hard in the Engineer's Training Camp.

Henry Pardey Jr. was among those in town Monday on business.

Mrs. Nellie Stinson of Wheeler, Oregon has been the guest of Mrs. S. A. Miller for several days.

George and Andrew Miller were here Sunday from Portland to visit their parents Mr. and Mrs. George Miller.

John Stauffer and Lawrence Pulley were home last week from the naval barracks at San Francisco, to visit relatives at Hubbard on a short furlough.

The Wilsonville committee for the Third Liberty Loan consists of five members—J. J. Thornton, chairman; M. C. Young, J. L. Kruse, N. O. Say, and C. R. Gunzel.

W. B. Felts, of Vancouver, last week offered a reward of $100 for the recovery of the body of his brother L. M. Felts of Butteville, who was drowned in the Willamette February 19.

Madeline Giesy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Giesy of Salem and a niece of Mr. and Mrs. George Kraus of this city, has won a place in the Junior Rainbow Regiment, by selling $50 worth of war saving stamps.

Henry Pardey Sr. and Henry Pardey Jr. have each just purchased $50 worth of war saving stamps. Circumstances forced both to register as enemy aliens, but they want to do their part in support of the war against autocracy.

Russell Higginbotham who was arrested recently on the charge of non-support of his wife and two children at Salem, has been released under $500 bonds furnished by his employers, the Hazelwood company, according to reports from Portland.

An exchange says that one trouble of this world is that there are too many who will not cast their bread upon the waters unless they are assured that it will come back to them in a few days a full grown sandwich all trimmed with ham, butter and mustard.

Justice of the Peace C. M. Crittenden of Hubbard was here last week on business. He is one of the loyal and patriotic citizens of that progressive little city, and is unreservedly supporting the government and backing the Hubbard boys who have gone or will go into the service of the United States. The luke-warms, the indifferent and the pro-Germans get no sympathy or encouragement in Justice Crittenden's court.

Mrs. Geo. W. Yergen who has been in Portland since she sufficiently recovered from her severe burns to be moved is reported improving rapidly. Skin grafting was resorted to in order to hasten the process and to preclude any possibility of ill effects when the scars healed, though her physicians in Portland believe the excellent treatment here made the chance of any ill effects in healing improbable. Her many friends here will be pleased to hear of her satisfactory progress.

Sidney Graham has been granted letters of administration by County Judge Anderson in the estate of Aaron Graham, who died January 18, 1918. The property consists of considerable personal property, together with an 85 acre farm in Clackamas and 20 acres in Marion county.

Misses Minnie and Clara Lettenmeier and Freda Pardey who are attending school at Oregon City and William Lettenmeier who is working in the mills there, spent Sunday at home with their parents. Raleigh Bowers of Macksburg has enlisted in the Aviation Corps and left this week for Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, with four other Clackamas county young men. They were the last to be received in the aviation service for the present. The spruce division is also closed.

Fred Kerr passed through here last week early Wednesday morning with his regiment of Field Artillery (formerly the Oregon Coast Artillery) enroute south. He threw off a farewell message, "Good bye Dutch Town." It is probable that the regiment went to some southern camp, possibly to Alabama or Mississippi.

The time for filing income tax returns has been extended to April 1. If an individual or partnership have a net income of more than $6,000, an extra return must be made on excess profit blanks. In the case of corporations an income over $3,000 makes them liable to the excess profits tax.

Twelve year old Sidney Brown, son of M. J. Brown, editor of the Corvallis Courier, last week ate a caterpillar cocoon, mistaking it for a piece of ginger bread he had pocketed on leaving the dinner table. No ill results followed, except that the boy is still hunting caterpillar hairs as energetically as M. J. is trailing the "octopus."

Contrasts and the Eye.
Lecturing on "The Effect on the Eye of Varying Degrees of Brightness and Contrast" before the Illuminating Engineer society recently, Dr. James Kerr of the public health department of the London county council referred to some effects which may be surprising. Having to examine long lists of figures in black type, he tried to facilitate his task by drawing vertical and horizontal lines in red ink, but the different focusing of the black and red strained his eye and gave him a headache, which did not trouble him when all the figures and lines were either black or red.

One of Them Did.
As good a real kid story as you've probably noticed for awhile is related herewith: The four-year-old son was having lunch alone with his grandmother. At his proposal they agreed to play "father and mother." He was the father, and she was the mother. After the few words of grace he bent forward in excellent imitation of his father and said, "Well, mother, and have the children said anything cute today?"—Philadelphia Star.

What They Were Doing.
"What wuz Si an' his wife a-doin' when you stopped at their farm awhile ago, Zeke?"
"Oh, a-hemmin' an' a-hawin'."
"Hemmin' an' hawin'?"
"Yep. She was hemmin' a apron, an' he was hawin' at the mule."—Florida Times-Union.

Sufficient Reason.
"Are you an art connoisseur?"
"Yes," replied Mr. Sumrox, "although I should never speak of myself as such."
"Why not?"
"Because I'm not absolutely sure I know how to pronounce the word."—Exchange.
