BEN F. WEST

Candidate for

State Treasurer

To the Voters of Marion County:

I am a candidate for the office of State Treasurer.

I have lived among you for over twenty-seven years. I have been one of your county officers for nearly six years. You know me in office and out of office. When you re-elected me two years ago by a five to one majority over my competitor you told me I had made good as your county assessor; that you were satisfied with my principles in conducting the hardest office to fill in the county. If I have made good as your assessor I can and will make good as your state treasurer. I have been in close touch with all classes of people for many years and I know their needs, and since attaining the office as your assessor, I have made a study of the duties a public official owes to the people he serves and you will have to agree with me that I have been at all times ready and willing to render my services to anyone who came within my office. I am now asking you to give me your support for state treasurer the same as you did for county assessor. You know we all like to advance in life when opportunity offers. In asking this I will assure you that you will have no cause to regret, and I feel I can be of greater service to the people of this county and the state than to serve you locally, and you will find me at all times on the job doing my duty for the best interests of the state.

Political Corner

Dr. H. A. Dedman of Canby is again a candidate for representative from Clackamas county. He has served in the House before and has made a good representative. He will doubtless be re-elected.

The Jefferson Review is supporting both Judge Bushey for county judge and "Alec" LaFollett for state senator. It is, at least, consistent in its choice. It picks all its favorites from the same class. It ought to add Ben Robertson and Withycombe to its list to lead the M. B. Brigade.

D. C. Thoms of Seio has filed as a candidate for Representative in Linn county. He served two terms in the House from this county "making good" both times. If Linn county is wise it will elect him to the lower house. He knows the ropes; he is honest and efficient; conservative enough to not waste the taxpayer's money; yet progressive enough to pass only constructive laws. He is both safe and liberal.

John Dinwoodie of Woodburn was in Aurora Saturday, looking into the political situation in the matter of his candidacy for representative. Mr. Dinwoodie is an American of Scotch descent, with all the Scotchman's characteristic frankness and openness. He would make an ideal representative—one that really represents the people.

CAMOUFLAGING

Judge Bushey is making no campaign for re-election. He says the people know his record. If they want him to serve for another term, all right; if not it's the ranch for him.—Jefferson Review.

A CONVERSATION

Between Mr. Doubtful and Mr. Right

Mr. Doubtful: "I don't see how I can buy any more Liberty Bonds. I bought all I could last fall. I'm not a rich man and I don't think it's fair or just to expect me to do anything more than I have done."

Mr. Right: "Let's see—your next-door neighbor's boy enlisted, didn't he?"

Mr. Doubtful: "Yes, he's over in France now. Mighty fine, stalwart boy, that!"

Mr. Right: "Exactly, and some day that splendid boy, the pride of his parents' hearts, may go 'over the top' in a gallant charge, stop a German bullet, and fall in the mud and debris of No Man's Land. Isn't that asking too much of him, and of his family? Is that 'fair'? Is that 'just'?"

Mr. Doubtful: "Why, it's awful, of course, but it can't be helped. This is war, and men have to be killed in it."

Mr. Right: "You've said it—this is war! To win the war it might be necessary for the government to take your factory away from you, and ruin your business. It might be necessary to take your house and turn you out in the street. What of that? Is that as great a sacrifice as your neighbor makes, or stands ready to make, when he gives his boy to his country? Yet you don't think it's your duty to pinch and save, and borrow if need be, in order to buy Liberty Bonds, and thus help shorten the war, make victory certain, and save the lives of thousands of American boys who will otherwise be uselessly sacrificed."

Mr. Doubtful: "I guess that's true, Mr. Right, I have been thoughtless. I'll stop complaining and criticising, and put up my last dollar if need be, to help win this war."
