Town Topics

J. E. Loyeall has returned from Brooks where he has been in the berry fields and hay fields.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Sloper of Butteville were here Thursday enroute home from Salem where they spent the Fourth.

Jno. Murray, W. L. Murray, W. E. Thamer and Geo. Rosich were among the East Butteville people here on business last week.

J. M. Broyles and family went to Portland the Fourth to witness the grand parade and other Independence Day ceremonies.

W. C. Campbell of Butteville, who was to have entrained June 30 for Vancouver to join the spruce division, did not go as scheduled.

Mrs. F. V. Epperson, who has been at The Dalles for a few weeks, returned last week. She was accompanied by her little son Joe.

George Speight of the White school district joined the "Limit Club" during the W. S. S. campaign, by purchasing $10.00 worth of war stamps.

E. M. Hurst was hauling cherries several days last week to the Sheridan cannery. Some of the cherries come from the George Cassidy place east of Hubbard, where some of the finest cherries in the country are grown.

George Miller is now the local agent of the American Railway Express Company, which is a merger of the four big express companies of America. The Merger will be for the period of the war, and possibly longer.

Miss Ethel Harding, a teacher in the State School for the Blind, was married Sunday to Mr. Roberts, another teacher in the school, and blind himself. Miss Harding will be remembered here as having often visited Miss Orletta Kraus at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kraus.

Mrs. J. M. Will, Miss Emma J. Snyder, Miss Leona Will, Chas. Snyder, and Percy Will motored to Corvallis Wednesday, where the latter took the state examination for cream and milk testers. They returned by the way of Albany where they were callers at the home of Dr. Starke.

C. E. Spence, master of the state grange, spoke at Barlow recently at a meeting celebrating the completion of that school district's quota of war stamps. With a quota of $3759, over $4440 was raised by stamp sales, this sending Barlow over the top in its usual patriotic manner.

Louis Webert returned Thursday afternoon from Portland where he has been serving on the Federal jury for several weeks. The jurors have been discharged and a new panel drawn for the next term. Mr. Webert was accompanied home by Mr. C. L. Hanson, of Junction City, who has also been serving on the jury. He was Mr. Webert's guest Thursday night and motored on home Friday.

Miss Ida Stauffer is the adviser of the White School Industrial Club. The next meeting of the club members will be at her home, July 23. Those who are actively engaged in club work are Alice Sanders, Eunice Worle, Opal Smith, Tera Bevins, Mildred Sandberg, Alta Earl, Wilma Earl, Arnold Lettenmaier, Frank Sandberg, Carl Pardey, Glenn Worle and Rolla Gardner.

Mrs. Jess Johnson was here from Donald Thursday to spend the Fourth with her mother Mrs. J. S. Vandeleur and her sister Mrs. Diana Snyder. Mrs. Johnson and family expect to go to Spokane soon to join Mr. Johnson who is firing out of Spokane on the North Bank Road. She has resigned as postmaster at Donald and will leave as soon as some one is appointed to relieve her. Three Donald ladies have taken the civil service examination for the place—Mrs. F. M. Ernst, Mrs. H. D. Evans, and Miss Verna Lamb, but no appointment has yet been made.

AURORA - OREGON

The Sanberg family drove to Vancouver the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Armstrong were in Aurora Friday shopping.

Joe Resch was among the Union Hill farmers here on business Friday.

The dance Thursday night at the Band Hall was attended by a good crowd and everyone had a good time.

Harry Rittenour of Yoder joined the "Limit Club" during the W. S. S. drive, by purchasing $10.00 in stamps.

Geo. Miller was among the Aurora people who went to Portland Thursday to see the big Fourth of July parade.

The families of Dr. B. F. Giesy, Wm. Kraus and Peter Hunt motored to Silver Creek Falls Thursday to spend the Fourth.

The Loyalty League at Yoder met at the school house to adopt a constitution, and by-laws drawn up by C. E. Dugan of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Eilers and family spent the Fourth at a community picnic across the Willamette, and attended the dance here in the evening.

Miss Clara Will has returned from a three week's stay with her sister Mrs. Geo. Scholl at Hubbard. Her two little nieces accompanied her home.

Harry Earl Davids was here Friday preparing his questionnaire. Gerd Eilers Sr., Chas. Eilers and R. A. Armstrong accompanied him to making supporting affidavits.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Gribble and children, Mrs. J. F. Kerr and family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Colclazier, and Aileen Snyder spent the Fourth on a picnic at the Giesy Springs.

The marriage of Miss Ruth Widstrand and Joseph Gottwald is reported from the Rural Dell section. Miss Emma Gottwald and Peter Kylo witnessed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Molalla have returned from California, where they spent last winter. The weather became so hot and dry they came home sooner than they intended.

A number of families "picniced" at Giesy Springs the Fourth, including George Kraus, A. W. Kraus, J. W. Sadler, E. T. Pierce, Chas. Beck, Jos. Erbsland, and Guy N. Hickok.

The Meridian Independence Day Picnic and celebration was attended by a good crowd. Many went out from the nearby towns. Wm. Hammond of Oregon City made an inspiring address which was received with enthusiasm. The basket lunch which followed was another of the popular features of the day.
