Rev. Thomas Acheson, our pastor for the past year has been appointed to Jason Lee Methodist Memorial church at Salem. It was no surprise to the community as we all realized that it was only a question of time before he would be called to a larger district. We are of course very sorry to lose him but would be selfish to want him to remain when greater opportunities were offered elsewhere. Our new pastor, Rev. Worrell, comes to us with strong recommendations. He is a spiritual and able man and has been successful in all charges, in leading many to Christ. Rev. Worrell is a married man with two children and will reside in Salem. His charge the past year was Perrydale, McCabe, and Ballston.

PLEA FOR MORE FUN.

Young life demands definite work and definite play. It also demands in its healthier manifestations a certain period of rest. Much of the delinquency of the day in large cities is due to the habit of roaming the streets at all hours of the night. It is due to a restlessness engendered partly indeed by lack of parent's care, but also to a defiance of orderly life that takes the place with a section of young people of independence. A more complete understanding of life, at its best, gotten by associating with those who are broad-minded and appreciative of the need for recreation and rest, is what will prevent delinquency. "Big brother" movements have their appeal and place. The only trouble here being its probable fathering by overzealous dogmatists in religion. No boy wants to be preached at. He wants to be amused, by being with worth-while comrades. A "big brother" who plays comrade and not preacher is a valuable asset. Loneliness of soul is keenly felt by many a boy, himself unconscious that he is so suffering, says Milwaukee News. It is when he is lonely that he finds occupation with a "gang." The natural social instinct is merely perverted.
