

THE AURORA OBSERVER

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1918.

N. C. WESCOTT

EDITOR AND PUBLISHER

Entered as second class matter March 25, 1911, at the postoffice at Aurora, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

I pledge allegiance to my flag and the republic for which it stands, one Nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice to all.

LIBERTY DAY

Saturday, October 12, is the four hundred and twenty sixth anniversary of the discovery of America. President Wilson has proclaimed it Liberty Day and requests the citizens of every community in the United States—city, town and country—to celebrate the day.

The President, in his proclamation says: "Every day the great principles for which we are fighting take fresh hold upon our thought and purposes and make it clearer what the end must be and what we must do to achieve it."

"We now know more certainly than we ever knew before why free men brought the great Nation and Government we love into existence, because it grows clearer and clearer what supreme service it is to be America's privilege to render to the world."

While the government absolutely forbids publishers to give free copies of their newspapers to anyone during the war, the Observer (and probably all other Oregon newspaper) has just received a letter from J. H. Ackerman, president of the Oregon Normal School at Monmouth, asking for a free subscription upon the ground that the school has several students from this section and county who would like to read it. The letter goes on to say, "I sincerely wish that our finances were such that the Oregon Normal School could become a regular subscriber of your paper, but for financial reasons we are unable to do so." Similarly the Observer wishes its finances were such that it could afford to send all the Normal Schools in America a free copy, but for "financial reasons", as well as to avoid a violation of government regulations, "we are unable to do so", hence the Oregon Normal School will have to do without this great family journal, until the state of Oregon can dig up $1.25.

The amazing possibilities of national profits from national economies are revealed in statistics furnished by the Fuel Administrator. It is shown that the money saved by American people who locked up their automobiles for a gasless Sunday—on September 1—amounted to $1,250,000. This is enough to feed the whole American Army in France for two days; to buy 5,000 machine guns costing $250.00 each, or to provide 35,784 completely equipped rifles for the American Infantry.

Senator A.M. La Follett has filed as an "independent" candidate for re-election. After being defeated in the Republican primaries, he asks Republicans to betray the candidates they choose. He has no claim whatever upon the Republican party or any member thereof. By his renegade tactics he has placed himself without the pale of decent party politics. The party should declare its "independence" of all such renegades who embrace the tenets of the party only so far as it suits their purposes.

In spite of the nasty insinuations of the Woodburn Independent concerning the Observer and the motive of its questions concerning the Independent's allegations concerning the weakness of Seymour Jones as a candidate for the speakership of the Oregon House of Representatives, there is no question of the ability of Mr. Jones, any more than there is of the chronic grouch of the Independent, whose record is not quite clear enough to allow it to make unresented insinuations on "leg pulling."

The large part that women are taking in war activities is shown by the 48 bond subscriptions to the 4th Liberty Loan, in the Aurora Banking district, totalling $4800—almost one fourth of the entire amount.

The North Dakota farmer of German descent, with a son on the French front, and who subscribed for the entire bond quota of his town, has no relatives or imitators in Oregon. The North Dakota man said "I want to prove to my boy that I am backing him to the limit of my ability."

Buy bonds. Help put the damn in Potsdam. Buy bonds.

The man who wont lend is the Kaiser's friend, and a bond slacker is the Kaiser's backer.

MACKSBURG.

A most distressing accident took place in our neighborhood last week owing to the explosion of a can of gasoline in charge of Elmer White. The burns inflicted upon the young man by the blazing fluid are so severe that but slight hope of his recovery can be entertained while his suffering was beyond all power to depict till unconsciousness came to his relief. The sympathies of the entire community have been awakened in behalf of the youthful sufferer and his friends.

The Red Cross Auxiliary held its regular meeting Oct. 2nd at the Sutherland building to complete an allotment of work for the Belgian children. Most cheerfully do the Red Cross workers give their time to this work not only in sympathy for the unfortunate victims of so much cruelty and wrong, but, also, in gratitude for the brave and splendid work the Belgian soldiers are doing for our cause.

We have all been reading lately about the Czecho-Slovak and about their throwing off the Austrian Yoke and asserting their independence early in the present year. Also of the acknowledgement of their cause by the allied powers but perhaps not everyone has reflected upon the vast importance of this accession to the allies or thought of its corresponding loss to Austria and Germany. Its geographical position alone lying as this country does—between Austria and Germany rendered it of the utmost value to both of those Powers, then it is a land rich in agricultural products while it mineral resources coal, iron and copper give it extreme importance in time of war. The well known endurance and bravery of the Czecho-Slovaks makes them invaluable soldin especially as years of oppression and wrong have disposed them to fight in earnest for liberty and right.

George Peabody
Banker and Philanthropist

When eleven years old, he was a store boy, at middle age a merchant prince, friend of royalty and active American patriot. Peabody gave millions for free education in America and England. "Economy and thrift" was his motto.

If you aim to get ahead in life you could adopt no better motto. The man who works steadily and honestly, lives sensibly and saves a portion of what he earns is certain to enjoy some "luck."

HEAR THIS CALL from OUR HOME TOWN BOYS OVER THERE

LETTERS from our boys in the trenches and from the women in canteen and other war work, all bring to us the same message—SEND US NEWS FROM HOME.

World news is all right, but OUR BOYS want NEWS OF THIS TOWN. They want the home newspaper. Publishers are prevented from sending their papers free to anyone, even boys in the service. Consequently a national movement has been started by Col. William Boyce Thompson of New York, who is acting as President of the Home Paper Service of America to give the boys what they are calling for. Every community is joining the movement. Let us see that our boys are not forgotten.

Send to the publisher of this newspaper whatever amount of money you can—5 cents or $50.00. We will publish a list each week of those contributing, and the amounts contributed.

Every cent received will be used to send this paper to our boys at the front. If at the end of the war, there is any surplus, it will be turned over to the local Red Cross Committee.

There is no profit in this to the publisher—even in normal times, subscriptions are not sold at a profit. With war prices prevailing, and the high rate of postage on papers sent to France, our cost will scarcely be covered by our full subscription price.

Remember that over in France, some brave soldier or sailor from this town—perhaps even some splendid woman working within sound of the guns—is depending on you to "KEEP THE HOME LOVE KINDLED."

They are calling to YOU from "Over There"
