Alvin Krieger was in town last week from The Dalles, saying the town was closed on account of the "flu." He was there several weeks running a movie machine and during that time the Columbia river was jammed with floating cakes of ice and these had frozen together. For the novelty of it most people walked across to the Washington shore and one Ford made the trip before the floe broke up.—Hubbard Enterprise.

In spite of the fact that Salem was full of the influenza, the Red Cross chapter there offered assistance last week to any outside town of the county that needed medical aid or nurses. No aid was needed here for there were practically no cases here, but the people of Aurora appreciate the offer, which came to the secretary of the Aurora Auxiliary.

The Knights of Pythias have reduced their initiation fee to all soldiers joining the order to $10. The Pythians have kept paid the dues of all members in the service, and are doing all they can to assist returning soldiers in every way, both those who are members of the order and those who are not. The Pythians and the Pythian Sisters have both been very energetic in all patriotic work during the war and will continue the good work as long as there is any need of it.

Mrs. Chas. Snyder was remembered by many friends, both young and old, this week upon the occasion of her 71st birthday. She says years ago it was a distinction to recall that she and the Ex-Kaiser celebrated the same natal day, but she is not proud of their joint birthday now, since the Kaiser turned out bad, for Mrs. Snyder is thorough American, proud of her country, her people, her family and her friends, all of whom wish her many more happy birthdays.
