

SALVATION ARMY MEETING

The Marvelous War Record of the Salvation Army will be told by eloquent speakers at a Mass Meeting at the

AURORA BAND HALL

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 21, '19

The story is a tale that is stranger and more wonderful than fiction—a story that will never die.

CHARLES V. GALLOWAY

State Tax Commissioner, Prominent Elk, and Salvation Army Booster. and

SGT. ROBIN D. DAY

Salem attorney, and gallant soldier who fought bravely in the terrible battles of the Argonne Forest, until severely gassed, will both speak of the heroic work done by the Salvation Army men and women.

Walter L. Tooze, Sr.

Marion county manager of the Elk's Home Service campaign will be present

The Ladies Quartette of Woodburn and O. L. McDonald of Salem will sing; and little 7-year-old Ethelwin Kelly will recite some wonderful selections!

Local Players Will Furnish The Music

Everyone is invited. Hear the story of what the Salvation Army Has Done,
What it Wishes to do, and what it Will Do.

Program begins at 8:30 sharp at the Aurora Band Hall, Aurora, Oregon
