

QUOTA NOT YET RAISED FOR SALVATION ARMY

The Aurora-Butteville-Fargo district is still below its quota in the Elk's Salvation Army drive, though it hopes to raise the $350 which has been assigned as its share of the $20,000 this county must raise.

Chairman Miller is confident the community will "come through", and urges any person who has been overlooked by the solicitors, or any one who is willing to increase their subscription, to hand in their subscription at once.

EPPELRY-PARDEY

Miss Eliza Pardey of Portland and Ernest Epperly of Portland were married here Sunday at noon by Rev. H. Bruss of the Lutheran church. The bride is the daughter of Henry Pardey Sr. of Hubbard. She has made her home in Portland for two or three years. The groom is a young man who has just returned from overseas service. They will reside in Portland.

When Traveling.

In preparing a lunch for a journey, bake the bread in empty baking powder cans. After slicing and spreading, replace it in the cans, put on the covers, and the bread will be as fresh at the end of the trip, though it may be several days, as it was when first packed.

What a Great Man Wrote.

Jacob A. Riis, the great man of a few years ago, once said that some defeats are merely installments of victory. Look upon defeats in this way and take fresh courage to begin again.

Miss Ida Stauffer of Hubbard, who has been in Seattle, returned last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tantfest and family were here yesterday afternoon from Fargo, driving over in their big Velie.

The case of Trost vs. Netter over last year's hop crop was dismissed Tuesday in the circuit court at Oregon City, having been settled out of court.

Henry L. Bents made a business trip to Yakima this week, leaving here Monday afternoon. He is looking over the hop yards in that section. He estimates the Washington hop crop at 18,000 bales this fall.

Among those in the city yesterday were Mrs. Anna Bents and daughter of Fargo, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Yergen of Hubbard, Rev. Worrell and F. B. Fargo, of Fargo, and Mr. and Mrs. Binger Giesy.

Mrs. L. A. Kinyon of Butteville, mother of W. C. and James Kinyon, died at her home there yesterday afternoon, aged 73 years. The arrangements for the funeral await word from a son in California.

Jay Coyle returned home from Eastern Oregon Wednesday of last week, confident he will have to stay away from the dusty countries as it brings an attack of irritation of the lungs previously caused by gas in France.—Hubbard Enterprise.

Rev. F. H. Lucas of Maxburg was a visitor here Thursday. He expects to leave in a short time for Camas, Washington, a larger field. Rev. Lucas is an able and ambitious young Lutheran pastor who has filled a difficult position during the war with credit to himself and to the satisfaction of all loyal citizens. He has many friends here who are pleased to know of his advancement though his Maxburg parishioners regret his departure.

Welcome Home The Boys JULY 3, 4, and 5 at SALEM

July 3, 4, and 5 are the official dates on which will be held the greatest celebration in the history of Salem. The boys who wore the uniform are to be welcomed home and everything is being made ready to receive them and show them the best possible time. Every soldier, sailor, and marine who went from Marion and Polk Counties is invited to be present for the three days.

War Mothers Welcome Warriors

The War Mothers are making great preparations to entertain the boys who wore the uniform. Your room and meals will be free and you will get a free pass to the moving picture shows, dances, receptions, banquets and other entertainments. They are doing everything in their power to make the three days the most pleasant of your lives. Don't fail to be here and enjoy what the War Mothers have prepared in the form of a welcome and a good time. No matter where you wore a uniform—All are welcome. Wear your uniform or not—suit yourself—uniform preferred.

SPECIAL FEATURES

For these three days there will be many special features. Here are a few:—

Grover Goes to Larger School

L. C. Grover and family moved to their new home at Clatskanie last Thursday where the Professor will have charge of the schools of that thriving little city next year. Mr. and Mrs. Grover made many friends during their stay in Stayton who are sorry to see them leave but congratulate Mr. Grover in securing a larger school. This year Stayton graduated the largest class that has been turned out of our high school since it was opened and Mr. Grover is to be congratulated for this good work also.—Stayton Mail.
