Make your plans "right now" to attend the Clackamas County Fair at Canby, October 1, 2, 3, and 4. Season (4 day) tickets, 75 cents. Single admission 25 cents. Buy a season ticket now.

The school play shed is making good progress and will probably be completed or nearly so by the time school begins on September 22. The district meeting authorized the construction of the shed at the June school meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Simmons of Nebraska have moved into the house formerly owned by the late A. J. Stephenson, having bought the home from Mrs. Alice Stephenson. They intend to make their home here permanently.

James and Charles Oglesby sold their places last week to Herman Vigen of Wisconsin. The two places consist of 30 acres on Gribble Prairie. The deal was made through J. J. Sandsness of Canby, the consideration being $8000.

Justice of the Peace Haynes of Sherwood is in a peck of trouble. District Attorney Tongue has been asked by State Motor Association to present charges against Haynes to the grand jury, it being charged that Justice Haynes appeared in his court room so drunk that the odor of liquor filled the room. That's going some!

School opened Monday at the White school, with Miss Florence Beardsley as teacher. Miss Beardsley made an enviable record in the same school last year. The White District is one of the most progressive country districts in the county. The district parent-teacher association has been very active in the past and has accomplished much good through its development of "the school spirit" there.

Sky Went Along.

A woman was leaving a home where she had been very happy, and, as she boarded the train which was to take her away, the tears came fast. Her little son, anxious to comfort her, tried the effect of a cheering discovery he had just made. "Why, mother," he exclaimed, "the sky is going right along with us." Other faint-hearted people need to make the same discovery. No matter what we leave behind, the best goes with us.

PUBLIC AUCTION

Franz Kraxberger is advertising a Public Sale at his farm near the Macksburg stores, for Wednesday, September 24, at which he will sell wagons, farm implements, tractor, auto, horses, heifers, goats, sheep, etc., together with cheat seed, barley, etc. Will Heinz will be the auctioneer and Arthur Graham clerk. Joe Gibson and his lunch wagon will be there. Sales made on the usual terms, 12 months time.

Complete line of Drugs, etc., at Moore's, Woodburn. Mail your orders.
