District Attorney Gehlar has filed an answer to the complaint of Harry Jenkins against the county for damages alleged to have been sustained in an auto wreck near Gervais on a county road two years ago last September. The district attorney asked the dismissal of the suit on the grounds that the county was not at fault. He claims that an approaching auto with glaring headlights caused the driver of Jenkins' car to run it into the ditch and that it was not the condition of the road that caused the accident.

Mrs. Diana Snyder returned Sunday night from Bend where she was visiting her sister Mrs. Jesse Johnson. Mrs. Snyder was much impressed with the prospects of that city, and made some investments in Bend real property.

Senator McNary arrived this week from Washington, having left the city at once upon the adjournment of the Senate. Congress will convene again Monday, December 1, but it is not expected to accomplish much before Christmas.

J. F. Nordhausen, of Aurora, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Saturday. Mr. Nordhausen, who has been working in the interest of the Red Cross society in this section, came here on business pertaining to the order.

Silverton turned in 615 Red Cross memberships, Gervais 23, and Willamette University 151. The total at the end of the week, for the entire county, was 4750. There were over 8000 members of the Red Cross in Marion county last year.

Only 25 days remain in which to secure automobile licences for 1920. There are yet 35000 owners who have not applied. To save visits to the police courts, motorists should see to it that their 1920 licence plates are upon their cars before the first 1920 drive is made.

Practically all Oregon bakeries have raised the price of bread. The one pound loaf now retails for 11 cents and the one and a half pound loaves for 16 cents. It will be difficult to persuade bread buyers that the increase is justified. Many people are again baking their own bread, it is said.

R. W. Cherrick, of Merryvale Farm near Barlow, was awarded three prizes on Hampshire swine at the International Stock Show at Portland last week. Mr. Cherrick has lived at Barlow only a few months, but has been very successful—with Hampshires.

Some Oregon teachers say that pupils coming here from other states are better informed about Oregon than are our Oregon pupils, because of the better text books used in their former state, and the poorly written geographies in use in this state. There is a reason why Oregon should not have the best text books obtainable.

It is reported that trucks of more than 5 tons capacity may be barred from Oregon highways. A recent law is said to specify 5 tons as the maximum capacity. Applications for licensing trucks of more than 5 tons have been received at the secretary of state's office has brought an interpretation of the law by assistant Attorney General Van Winkle, which holds that the big trucks have no right on the public highway.

FROM THE PENCIL'S POINT

Look out for hard times; the days are getting shorter.

The late husband catches the early morning lecture.

The more a man knows about love the less experience he has had.

Lots of men remain bachelors simply because they can afford to.

If the victims remain single there is no objection to love at first sight.

A childless marriage is not a howling success in one sense of the term.

Some men use all the material they have at hand making fools of themselves.

Announcement

POWDER

We have made arrangements with the GIANT POWDER COMPANY of San Francisco whereby we can furnish Powder to our trade at the following prices:

Eureka Stumping Powder

PER BOX $8.50

20 Per Cent Stumping Powder

PER BOX $8.75

Prices Strictly Cash

These are distinctly attractive prices for first class powders, which make stumping and blasting possible to all those having land to clear. There is every prospect of still more prosperous times for the country, but no immediate prospect of a general reduction in prices, except in such special cases as our arrangement with this big powder company through quantity purchases. Hence we are certain that these prices should appeal to powder buyers.
