Entered as second class matter March 28, 1911, at the postoffice at Aurora Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

THE MAN WHO WINS

If you think you're outclassed you are;
You've got to think big to rise;
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can win a prize
Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man;
But soon or late the man who wins
Is the fellow who thinks he can.

"Some men are just dying to attract attention, but don't until they do, says Judge.

It is the little things that separate us from success, not the big ones—said the fat lady.

If it isn't any of our business, like the average man, we are very likely to take a keep interest in the matter!

"What do you know about the Mongolian Race, Tommy?" asked the teacher. "Nuthin", said Tommy, "Dad wont let me go to horse races."

State Treasurer Hoff announces that he intends to investigate the rise in gasoline prices. Having been once investigated himself, he ought to know how to do it!

Sheriff Needham declares that if one speed officer is not enough to curb the speeders on the Pacific Highway in Marion county, the county court will be asked to put on as many as are necessary to make the Highway safe. Motoring is anything but pleasant when one has to keep a constant lookout for speed demons. The sheriff's efforts will receive the approval of 99 per cent of the motorists.

"Nothing Like It" says the Good Judge

A little of this real tobacco gives a man more satisfaction than he ever got from the old kind.

The full, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long, you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often. That's why it costs you less.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
