H. G. Ziegler this week shipped a car of potatoes to Sacramento and a car of hay to Salem.

The Observer acknowledges a number of kodak views of Alturas, California; Lakeview, Oregon and vicinity from C. B. Brewer formerly of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Brewer are both reported well.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Schiedel, who are visiting Mrs. Schiedel's parents

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schwader, expect to return to Bend soon. The lumber mills at Bend are reported about to resume operations.

The Jacob Troutd family received notification from Washington D. C., Friday of last week stating the body of Nick Troutd, whose death occurred in France while with the A. E. F., would arrive in America in a short time. The notice also stated the family would be notified when the vessel reached port, when the body will be shipped to Hubbard.—Hubbard Enterprise.

Born, Tuesday, February 8, to the wife of Albert Ehlen, a daughter. Both mother and daughter are doing nicely, and the happy father is still walking around with his head in the clouds.

W. J. Flick, clerk of the Union school district, was here Tuesday on business. Mr. Flick believes the prospects are good in Union district for much road improvement the coming summer.

The Hubbard Pythian Sisters announce a "high jinks" session for March 1. The Aurora Pythian Sisters lodge which has been growing by leaps and bounds announce a continuous succession of enthusiastic sessions.

Edward Anderson is here from Grants Pass for a visit with his brother J. Victor Anderson at Meridian. Mr. Anderson recently sold his 8 acre tract about a mile east of Aurora to R. O. Malo.

Loren Kerr came up last week from Seaside and after a short visit here with his sister Mrs. Albert Ehlen, left for Pringle, in Eastern Oregon where he will be employed by the Huber Paving company.

Mrs. Pheona Parrish arrived last week from Phoenix, Arizona, for a short stay with her father, J. P. Hoffman, who returned with her to Arizona. They left Tuesday. Mr. Parrish is in Phoenix for his health.

The road authorities have called the attention of all citizens to the fact that the law prohibits dumping tin cans and other refuse upon the public highways. Neither is it permissible to dump them into the streams. Cities usually provide dumping ground for such waste and refuse as is carted away.

The report that there are several cases of typhoid at Canby is not true. The report probably originated from the publication of the state board of health's statement that the city water contained colon bacilli. Many Canby families use water from wells on their premises, but they are boiling water from these wells, as are those who use the city water.

Hazel Mills of Meridian has been named president of the "B. B." Sewing club of the Hubbard high school, and Merl Pond of Aurora vice president, with Glenora White and Lorraine Grazer among the members. Of the "P. T." Cooking club Lorraine Grazer is president and Merle Pond, secretary, with Gladys Tremayne, Celena Tremayne and Hazel Mills among the members.

WINTER ATTENTION TO MILK

Unusual Care Should Be Exercised in Washing All Tin Utensils Used in Dairy.

The winter care of milk calls for unusual care in washing all tin things used. In summer it is easier to keep clean; we have the sunshine to help—the world's greatest purifier. So much the more reason why we should place extra stress on using hot water and soap, with good pure cold water for rinsing.

HAVE GOOD PUREBREDS ONLY

Pedigrees Don't Amount to Much Unless Daughters Are Better Than Their Dams.

No stock-raiser should be satisfied until he has the services of purebred sires for his farm; not merely a purebred, but a productive purebred. Pedigrees don't amount to anything unless a sire can produce daughters better than their dams.
