Family of Seven Die Together. Because they could no longer stand the agonies of starvation, a Chinese family of seven committed suicide. The father and mother first bound their five children together, then lashed themselves to the children, and all leaped into a river. The seven bodies, all bound together, were seen by L. V. Lewis of Portland, who recently returned from the famine section in North China.

The Grand officers of the Pythian lodge were in Aurora Wednesday visiting the local lodge.

Gerald, the little infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Preston, died last Friday and was buried the following day.

G. C. Giesy and family took advantage of the nice day Sunday by motoring to the Metropolis of Oregon.

"With 45,000,000 starving, the situation is a colossal tragedy," said Mr. Lewis, "and rather than see their children suffer any longer, parents all through the famine lands are killing their little ones and then themselves. There are millions of gaunt, emaciated, half-naked men, women and children roaming the famine lands, chewing roots and bark, and hanging tensely to life, in the effort to pull through until spring. The relief organizations are struggling against the overwhelming situation, and are saving some of those on the edge of the great famine district. Surely every man, woman and child in Oregon will want to give something towards the China Famine Fund."

John Stauffer, one of our readers and prosperous farmers living on R. 2 out of Hubbard, was a pleasant caller last Thurs.

ASKS INDEPENDENCE FOR PHILIPPINES

Francis Burton Harrison

Manila. — Francis Burton Harrison, former governor general of the Philippine Islands, offered to tender his resignation eighteen months ago upon condition that the Secretary of War recommend to President Wilson that a Filipino be appointed his successor. He made the offer while in Washington in 1919.

Discussing Philippine independence, the governor general said:

"I can see in the future a very beautiful vision. When the flag of the Philippine Republic shall be hoisted, when the Stars and Stripes will come floating down to the strains of 'The Star Spangled Banner'—that flag, Old Glory, so rich in happy and honorable achievements, will be made doubly dear because it will mean that the United States will have kept its word to the people of the Philippine Islands."

E. J. Snyder made us a pleasant visit Thursday night. Mr. Snyder, at one time in earlier days was interested in a newspaper in Aurora and he has great faith in the town. In fact, Aurora is just entering the era of new growth and will expand and improve wonderfully in the next few years, or we miss our guess.

Fishermen are at the height of their delight. The season is "open", the weather ideal and around Aurora the streams offer plenty of fish to tempt. Messrs Albert Ehlen, Ortman, Harry Ehlen and Smucker were out the first of the week, bringing in a nice mess of trout, and the editor's family are grateful to Mr. Ortman for a good fish meal.

The laziest of birds is the frogmouth. He sleeps all day, and at night, instead of flying about in search of food, he sits and literally waits for the insects to come and feed him. He is such a sound sleeper that you can push him off his perch with a stick and not wake him, says Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph. He inhabits Australia and the islands of the Indian ocean. In size the frogmouth resembles the whippoorwill, and he gets his name from his wide mouth, which serves as his insect trap. Too lazy to fly for his food, like other birds, he crawls along the limb of a tree, opening his wide mouth and snapping it shut, catching what flies and gnats come within his range. Only after the sun goes down does he show any inclination to move about.
