Exports from the Willamette and Columbia river district during the cereal year exceeded in value those of the preceding period by approximately 60 per cent and amounted to $68,019,296 in the Portland district alone, according to the annual report of the Oregon state board of pilot commissioners.

Further protection of salmon in the waters of Oregon is the alleged purpose of a proposed constitutional amendment which will be referred to the voters by initiative petition at the next general election. A copy of the proposed amendment was received at the offices of the secretary of state at Salem from G. G. Green, a resident of West Linn, Clackamas county.

There were two fatalities in Oregon due to industrial accidents during the week ended July 15, according to a report prepared by the state industrial accident commission. The victims were Anna McNaughton, elevator operator, Portland, and Jack Pressler, logger, Myrtle Point. A total of 266 accidents were reported during the week.

Portland automobile dealers will have to pay 1921 taxes in excess of $100,000, as a result of a decision handed down by Circuit Judge Kavanaugh in the case of the Northwest Auto company against T. M. Hurlburt, as sheriff of Multnomah county. Judge Kavanaugh decided against the dealers in a suit which sought to prevent the collection of taxes on automobiles in stock.

Mrs. E. B. Fuller of Portland has been visiting at the Geo. Yergen home during the past week.

The Portland division of the Southern Pacific stands first of all the Pacific divisions of the company for the least number of accidents during the five months of this year, according to a recent report.

Hood River county Fruit Inspector Armstrong has discovered fire blight, one of the most deadly diseases attacking fruit trees, in upper valley orchards. It is believed the pest has been brought in by birds or high winds from eastern forests.

Prospects for the heaviest tonnage of fruit ever shipped out of the Rogue valley are bright, according to a census just completed by the Southern Pacific Railroad company, working in co-operation with the field staff of the Oregon growers.

Astoria was the host of approximately 500 delegates, representing 21 camps of the United Spanish War Veterans and the women's auxiliaries from 21 cities of Oregon who were present to attend the 13th annual convention of those organizations.

The state superintendent of public instruction has mailed to all county and city superintendents pamphlets setting out the procedure for preparing budgets and voting school taxes under a new law enacted at the last session of the legislature.

Robert Grant, who escaped from the state penitentiary at Salem March 27, 1920, was captured at Wenatchee, Wash., and will be returned to Salem to serve out his unexpired term. Grant originally was received at the prison from Umatilla county to serve four years on a charge of burglary.

The Oregon supreme court will not hear any more cases until after the August vacation, according to an announcement by Arthur Benson, clerk of the court. There are more than 30 cases now pending before the court, a number of which will be disposed of before vacation adjournment is taken.

The interstate commerce commission has issued an order of investigation on its own motion relative to the reasonableness of interstate rates on grain and grain products and hay in the western and Pacific states, according to a telegram received at the offices of the public service commission.
