Portland, Ore., July 19, 1921.
Aurora Observer:

Kindly run our professional card in your paper until further notice. We are nicely located here in Portland and will be pleased to see any of our Aurora friends at any time, whether they call professionally or not. We are on the East Side. Take Mt. Tabor or Sunnyside or to 39th and there our sign will be seen.

Thanking you for courtesies in the past and trusting you will call on us if you can spare us a few minutes when you are again in Portland,
Sincerely,
MRS DE LESPINASSE.

The best little Business town in Oregon—Aurora. The best located town in Oregon without a single question—Aurora. Midway between the two largest cities in Oregon, far enough from each. On the paved highway, on the main line of the Southern Pacific railway. A town with modern improvements, with the best soil on earth, fruit, vegetables, flowers, hops and grain. The most contented people, prosperous people, progressive people, home people. Everybody is busy, everybody employed. Aurora needs a jeweler, a real estate agency, a picture show, a cannery, more people and more houses.

Pendleton, Oregon, July 21.—New world's records in the events which make the Pendleton Round-Up famous the world over are expected at the 1921 show which will be staged here September 22, 23 and 24.

Fast relay strings, wild young steers and bucking "bronks" whose hasty temper and uncertain disposition will give the cowboys a chance to show their skill in the bucking contests, are promised for the great outdoor drama. The steer bulldogging gives indications of being a most spectacular event, for Ray McCarroll and Frank McCarroll, two brothers, are vying for the championship. Frank McCarroll recently broke all records when he bulldogged in 7 3-5 seconds, but his brother, Ray, succeeded a few days ago in clipping two-fifths of a second off this time.

One of the features of the show is the speed with which events are given. The big panorama of events begins each day exactly at 1:30 p. m., and continues without pause during the afternoon. Never is the slogan "Something Doing Every Minute" better exemplified than at the Round-Up.

Among 1921 Round-Up visitors this year will be W. B. Brown, nationally known illustrator, of Boston, Massachusetts. He expects to find many subjects for drawings at the show. Another visitor will be Dr. George Black, prominent physician of White Plains, New York.

Round-Up devotees, new and old, will be interested in the announcement that Colonel Charles Wellington Furlong's book, "Let 'er Buck," is now on the press. It is the official Round-Up book and its sale is sponsored by the Round-Up Association. The book, which contains 200 pages, is profusely illustrated with 50 reproductions of Round-Up photographs. It was recently reviewed in the New York Times.
