EXHAUST OF STEAM

The "all's-wrong" editor" of the Woodburn Independent is getting restless to start something "on the contrary view." Since away last election he has been suffering for be "on the opposite side." Anything to be "on the opposite side." Anything to sling a mud ball. This "all-high" of our neighboring town is made and while we were riding on the "merry-go-round," but you wasn't washington people.

In his nasty, little, jealous article he ends by saying there will be no "filing" in the columns of his paper. Shame on you, old fellow, you showed us a good time on your $1000 celebration, and as you say you "gave the people as good a time as possible." We seen you hanging around the "nigger baby rack" that day while we were riding on the "merry-go-round," but you wasn't give jobs to all these California and Washington people.

And make the train crew sore. There was a man who fancied this, But—there isn't any more.

Reliable rumors says California is a worse shape than Seattle. No jobs whatever in California. No prices for the fruit, and no market, no wages. The roads and highways are least they should charge enough less to pay the necessary taxes and bonds article he ends by saying there will be under the time command.
