THE HORSES—HOW THEY RACED

Tedy Hamn, driver by its owner A. J. Dickerson, is a pacer and came out winner in the first heat at the Clackamas county fair. Tedy is a horse to be proud of. Gresham Boy came out second in the first heat; "Glory" a very stylish pacer was third in the first heat and King Seal fourth. In the second heat Gresham Boy won out to the surprise of many people, as Tedy Hamn was closing in on him fast, and of course Tedy was second. Glory came third again, and King Seal fourth. In the third heat Tedy Hamn won first by a big margin, Gresham Boy second, Glory third and King Seal fourth.

The next was the trotters. Zom Dell won first in all three heats. Helsley was the driver (and he knew his business too) Zombrunn, driven by Coffene won second in the first heat, third in the second and second in the third. Jennie W. driven by Wheeler won third in the first heat, second in the second and third in the third. Lottie Ansel, driven by Merrill, the owner, came fourth in all three heats.

"Soon" a running horse, won first prize by a good margin. Belfrey, whose sire was a fine horse named "Firman" won second and was driven by the owner, Mr. James. Dorothy N. owned by W. Honeyman of Portland, was driven by Mr. Donnelly won third prize Tony Murratto's "Sweet Tooth" took fourth. "Sweet Tooth" is a very pretty horse and has done much better in the past.

Ray Lee of Canby exhibited four New Zealand Red rabbits at the fair, also one Flemish Giant doe.

S. E. Bracy exhibited 10 head of fine Poland China hogs. "Oregon's Big Jumbo" his "big hog weighs 575 pounds at 14 months. Mr. Bracy lives near Hubbard and has 75 of this breed of hogs at the farm now. He has raised hogs for over fifteen years, and has had many kinds and breeds of hogs, but has in the last three years centered his attention to the Poland China, with better results than he has ever had before.

E. J. Larkins & Son of Estacada exhibited a large type of Poland China hogs at the fair at Canby.

G. L. Winzler of Canby Route 1, showed a fine running horse at the fair last week.

"White Rose the Second" is a Short Horn white bull owned by Clarence Burgess of Route 2, Canby, which took first prize at the fair last week. This animal is only 16 months old and weighs 1050 pounds.

Clarence Burgess of Route 2, Canby, exhibited a Poland China sow with a litter of five. The sow weighs 490 pounds at 22 months old. One gilt (before bearing young) weighed 425 pounds at 13 months old. Mr. Burgess recommends the Poland China hog as the easiest to fatten and keep in good shape with little feed.

"George B." a 7 year old English Shire stallion, owned by Fritz Stegmann of Needy, on Route 2 Aurora, took second prize at the Clackamas county fair. His weight is one ton and he is a pretty bay in color. Many looked for this horse to go first.

The Iron Mine Farm of Oswego exhibited "Darling Vive Glow Chief" number 187368, 18 months old bull, sired by Vive LaFrance, a second son of "Old Man's Darling Second's youngest daughter, (so reads the records.)

Arthur Pressey of Oregon City R.5, won first prize on his roan Belgian mare Ruby, weight 1950 pounds, and second prize on Victoria, mother of Ruby, also a roan mare of the same breed, weighing 1935 pounds. Victoria is an imported mare from Belgium. This team was taken right off the plow and brought to the fair and consequently were not in the best of trim for the show.

HARMS OF MACKSBURG WINS MANY RIBBONS

H. D. Harms of Macksburg, won two second prizes on Cotswold sheep at the Clackamas county fair last week, and on the Chester White hogs he exhibited he won first prize on a two-year-old boar, first on a boar under six months, second prize on a brood sow, second on a sow and litter and first prize on a gilt under six months old. Mr. Harms is a booster for the Chester White.

BARRED ROCKS OF MRS. KLEINSMITH SHOWN AT CLACKAMAS FAIR

Mrs. H. C. Kleinsmith of Hoff post office, on the Beaver Creek road exhibited some of the finest Barred Plymouth Rock chickens that you could find anywhere in the country. She had 12 altogether, six pullets, 2 hens and 4 cockrels. The two hens have a combined record of 435 eggs a year. One of them lays 221 eggs while the other lays 214. Mrs. Kleinsmith says these chickens are bred to lay. Leghorn chickens do not stand in well with this chicken specialist. Nothing but Barred Plymouth Rocks for her. She has a pen of five pullets at the Western Washington experiment station at this time. That station is at Payallup. These five have laid 1106 eggs. Mrs. Kleinsmith is a leader of the Clarks Poultry club, and this club has a good sized membership. She has raised Barred Plymouth Rocks for many years and advocated them for best results.

W. W. Irvin of Aurora exhibited a fine herd of eight Durham Short Horn cattle at the Clackamas county fair last week. His winnings were good.

Barlow
By Mrs. M. Kloster.

Manuel King had the misfortune of breaking his leg when a heavy piece of wood fell on it the other day.

Mrs. Peterson left yesterday for Portland where she will spend a couple of weeks visiting friends.

Prompt action of the volunteer fire fighters of Barlow saved the Robinson home from complete destruction a few nights ago, when fire at quite a headway was discovered. The big water tank was a wonderful help, which has proven to be in other cases.

Lee Carter of Portland came out and spent Sunday with his family, who are at present stopping with Mrs. Carter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Boehler. Mr. Carter's work is in Portland.

Mrs. B. Tull and Vernie Kensey went to Salem one day this week, and Mrs. Potsford took charge of the post office for the day.

Gerald Ball sustained a severe cut about the head a few days ago when some one dropped a bucket down the silo where he was working. His injuries are not considered serious however.

Most of the population of this town took in the Clackamas county fair at Canby last week, and every one says it was better than it has been for several years.

The recent rainfall has made every one here quite happy, as it was so badly needed. (You notice that the dust has settled.)

Eugene Hunter of Portland spent Sunday with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Seogus.

Ed. Kloster has converted his barn into a garage, with the assistance of Cline.

Several new houses are under construction in and near this town, which indicates that the Barlow community is growing.
