

New Era Fax

Ray Newbury of Portland, manager of Western Oregon Handle factory, came out Saturday evening to spend the week end with his mother, Mrs. J. N. Dustin.

Earl Anthony, who has been ill for more than a year, recently left for Brightenbush Springs, near Detroit, Oregon, for his health, after doctors failed to diagnose his case.

Ed. Palmer is building a new house on his place along the highway north of New Era.

Col. William A. Aird has raised over $3500 worth of pansey seed this year on his pansey farm a little way north of this town. This is Col. Aird's second year at the pansey game, and is a fine showing. The Colonel served this country in the overseas forces in the recent war.

Thompson Bros. mill is going to have a new planer added to the equipment. This mill, under the management of Mart. and Archie Thompson has experienced a large out-put of lumber and ties during the past ten months.

The New Era Flour Mills are now running two shifts going off duty at mid-night.

The New Era grammar school has already enrolled 17 pupils, and about 10 more are expected to enroll by the first of October.

Herman Anthony is sick, and Dr. Guy Mount is unable to tell just what is the matter with the young man, although there are indications of typhoid fever.

Considerable building is going on around this town this month. A great many people are going into the poultry business extensively and are erecting new chicken houses.

Editor's note: We are glad to open a section of The Observer for the people of New Era, and in the near future we expect to be able to appoint a regular correspondent to gather news for us. This is a growing community and it needs representation.
