It is said that "One half the Chicago police force is bootlegging." We suppose the other half are customers.

The Capital Journal suggests a "poll tax" to raise the necessary amount in Oregon for the 1925 Fair. Anybody else got a suggestion. You are not taxed for making the suggestion.

Utah is trying to steal California's reputation for earthquakes. In the Mormon state now we read of buildings being ruined, mountains being shaken and towns thrown in panic by frequent earth disturbances.

Everyone seems to think a cannery would be a splendid thing for Aurora. Most men say a fruit cannery would be the making of the town and community. Very well! But why not build it. Organization is needed; some one to start it—or some other town will do it.

We thought so! When Fatty Arbuckle arrived home in Los., last week, the station platform was crowded with women to meet and cheer him. Several women rushed forward and embraced him. "Birds of a feather flock together." Seems to be lots of these birds.

It is hoped that A. H. Lee continues to serve as Secretary to the State Fair Board. Mr. Lee has some unknown, mysterious scheme, whereby he succeeds in having the best weather made during his annual fairs.

Oregon City wants to grow; it is growing. But it is eager to burst its limited boundaries and the streets and building space won't expand. First, Oregon City will have to route the paved Pacific Highway over the hill, to "upper Oregon City", or else build a sea-wall and scenic route along the river by the paper mill and falls. The old board road, narrow, rough and shaky is dangerous and a disgrace to that busy, industrial city.

Pear Good, a Portland 18 year-old girl thief and house burglar, started her career with a man she met at a dance. Nearly every wrong doer, especially females, start with the dance; all houses of ill-fame had their dance parlors, as a home-breaker the dance is king, all old-time saloons depended on their dance halls. The cause of more down-falls among girls are these public dance halls where coterie check-rooms are maintained—decent good girls don't attend them long. The city public dance halls are the greatest curse in America today.

To and Fro

Caught us with a dirty shop and work piled over our head, but any old weekly newspaper editor is tickled to the toes to have his sanctum entered for a social "howdy" by his Governor and Secretary of State. Gov. Oleott and Secretary of State Kozer were pleasant callers for a few minutes on Tuesday.

STOP AND THINK

Did you ever stop and think, Mr. Silverton Merchant, that the town that gets the publicity is the town that gets the business? That the town filled with good advertisers is the town that grows? That advertising properly done is worth its weight in gold, that advertising is business and not child's play? That people will drive for miles to trade in a good, live town? That your property will increase in value when the outside world knows you and your town are wide awake? That people from neighboring towns will come where there is something worth coming for? That the merchant who doesn't seek to build up a better trade than he now has will lose out? That now is the time your town and your business needs advertising more than ever before because business is harder to get than it has been for two or three years? That if you do not hustle for trade in the community about you the merchants in some other town will? That if they do not get the business you've no one to blame but yourself if it doesn't come to you? Think it over. And then come in and let us show you how little good advertising costs.—Silverton Tribune.
