NEWBERG—Fire early Sunday morning burned the Nazarene church here to the ground with an estimated loss of $10,000. It was understood that an insurance policy of $4000 had recently lapsed, although this could not be verified as the church authorities were reticent in discussing news matter on Sunday.

Monmouth—With the crop almost harvested, estimates place the value of the 1921 hop crop in the vicinity of Independence at $1,000,000. The yield will be about 18,000 bales, approximately one-third of the yield of the entire state. The hop-growing industry ranks as a leading factor in the prosperity of Polk county.

Rainier—The L. B. Menefee mill of this city employing 50 men, closed down Saturday for an indefinite period, giving as a reason that the lumber product could not be disposed of for the amount paid for the logs. Arrangements have been completed whereby all the men thrown out of employment will go to work for the Long-Bell concern, operating directly across the river from Rainier.

Salem—The public service commission is advised by L. H. Van Winkle, attorney-general, that the bond required to be executed to the state of Oregon by the operator of a public warehouse is executed in favor of the state for convenience only, and that, under the laws of Oregon, an action may be brought on the bond by one entitled to damages under its provisions without joining the state as plaintiff.

La Grande—The eighth annual meeting of the Morrow County Fair association closed Saturday night after a successful three-day session. Although the fruit, vegetable and floral displays were disappointing as compared with former years, the racing and round-up features drew the crowds daily.

Union—S. E. Miller, leading sheepman, has sold 60,000 pounds of wool to the Portland Scouring mills at 13 1/2 cents for coarse and 14 1/2 cents for fine wool at Union. Mr. Miller has put up 2000 tons of hay in 100 stacks and will feed it to his stock the coming winter.

Harrisburg—Tomatoes, of which there is usually a good crop in this vicinity, were so badly nipped by the two frosts occurring the early part of the month that the yield will be very light. The potato vines were also leveled and the crop will suffer.

Eugene—Hops are selling in Lane county at from 25 cents to 33 cents a pound, according to Frank Heyer, local representative of T. A. Livesly & Co. of Salem. Mr. Heyer has taken in more than 1400 bales since picking started and has prepared to handle more.

Union—S. E. Miller, leading sheepman, has sold 60,000 pounds of wool to the Portland Scouring mills at 13 1/2 cents for coarse and 14 1/2 cents for fine wool at Union. Mr. Miller has put up 2000 tons of hay in 100 stacks and will feed it to his stock the coming winter.

Heppner—The eighth annual meeting of the Morrow County Fair association closed Saturday night after a successful three-day session. Although the fruit, vegetable and floral displays were disappointing as compared with former years, the racing and round-up features drew the crowds daily.

Valuable Jack Pine.
There are many qualities of the Jack Pine which recommend it for a continuous forest crop. It is extremely hardy and grows on the poorest soils. It reproduces better than any other conifer in eastern Canada as is evidenced by the way it replaces other woods following cutting or fire. It grows rapidly and under natural conditions will attain pulpwood size in a shorter time than spruce or balsam.—Montreal Family Herald.
