

38 YEARS FOR S. P. HERE

Last Saturday Geo. Miller, local S. P. agent, was "all dolled up," and told us his children reminded him of his birthday by presenting him with a suit of clothes. Mr. Miller is now 66 years old and has served the railroad company at their Aurora station for 38 yrs. He is still a young man, due to his mode of living and healthful Aurora country.

Several friends and neighbors gathered at the home of P. Graves, on R. 1, yesterday, to celebrate the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Graves.

A big sign board is being put up on Aurora's main street, where a nice lawn and lovely flower garden would look much better.

Aurora must have more dwellings, and have them now. Families inquiring every day for a place to live.

We all realize the need, and advantages and opportunities to be ours, if Aurora will secure a fruit and vegetable cannery. All are willing, all in favor, then why not get together and talk things over.

But the Home Paper Told It.

Wasn't it fine about Priscilla getting honors in her school work last term? said Mrs. Smith to Mrs. Brown.

"What?" asked Mrs. Brown. "I didn't know about it."

"But it was in the Home Town Paper," replied Mrs. Smith. "Don't you take it?"

"No," said Mrs. Brown, "but I am going to."

And she did, for this is a true story.

As much a part of the community life as is the school or church is the Home Town Paper.

The program committee of the Aurora Women's club consisting of Mrs. Gordon Watt, chairman; Mrs. J. W. Sadler and Mrs. E. G. Robinson, assisted by the president, Mrs. Orelia Powers, entertained with a delightful luncheon at the home of Mrs. Sadler, for members of the club and many out of town guests. The rooms were beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and flowers. Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, was honor guest. She gave an interesting talk on the duties and obligations of the club members in their various lines of work and also urged their entrance, study and complete understanding of politics, particularly in the matter of disarmament and a league of nations. After the luncheon Mrs. Frank Miller gave a descriptive musical number, "A Japanese Sunset."
