EXHIBITS A TIBETAN SHRINE
New York Museum Shows Figure of Buddhist Saint of Olden Time.
New York.—A Tibetan temple shrine, complete in every detail, has been placed on temporary exhibition in the American Museum of Natural History, and for the first time students of Tibetan culture are enabled to study the influences of Indian and Chinese culture on Tibetan religious art.

Most of the collection was looted from Tibetan temples by a Chinese expedition which penetrated Tibet after the British under Sir Francis Younghusband had left Lhasa, the Forbidden City. Alexander Scott, a British artist who made his home for twenty-six years at Darjeeling, India, on the highway to Tibet, owns the greater part of the collection. He had wheeled his way into the country and was on familiar terms with Tibetan lamas and priests before the Younghusband expedition fought its way

SCOUTS IN CAMP.
L. L. McDonald, national camp director of the Boy Scouts of America, recently gave out that there are approximately two thousand troop and council camps at present in operation in the United States, which means that over 150,000 boys are enjoying this summer the benefits and delights of life in the open under ideal conditions of leadership and equipment. All these camps are under expert scout men and are conducted in accordance with the requirements of the national camping department. The scout law is the law of each camp and every one of these 150,000 boys will come back home a little nearer the scout ideal "physically strong, mentally awake, morally straight."

SCOUT LOSES LIFE SAVING CHUM.
Thomas R. Robinson of Camden, N. J., a thirteen-year-old boy scout, recently gave his life in saving that of another lad who could not swim. His effort was successful, but just at the last moment he himself became exhausted and sank. Pathetically enough, young Robinson had confided to his friends long before the accident that it was the dearest wish of his life to be a hero and to wear a medal of honor from the Boy Scouts of America.

TO BECOME SCOUT.
Henry Stewart, seventy-four years of age, who has visited Palestine, Turkey, Egypt, Russia, Spain, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Hungary, Germany, Norway, Sweden and England, has decided to settle down for a spell at San Diego and take up boy scout work, which he thinks is the next most interesting thing in the world to traveling. He doesn't know yet what he will do when he is old. There will be plenty of time to decide that later.

THE REWARD.
The reward of a thing well done, is to have done it.—Emerson.

Maine attracts more summer visitors than any other state in the Union.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Eugene.—Sixteen carloads of equipment of the 91st aero squadron of the United States army, who have been located in Eugene during the past summer on forest fire patrol duty, Sunday were shipped to Crissey field at San Francisco, where the squadron will be located this winter.

Bend.—Paving was completed in Bend Saturday under existing contracts. The downtown section and two residence streets are now hard surfaced.

Salem.—Prunes in the hands of growers in The Dalles district were cleaned up Saturday for the first time in 18 months according to reports received here. All to the 1920 crop has been sold and the entire 1921 product has either been contracted for or delivered to purchasers.

Klamath Falls.—Decision as to whether sheepmen will be admitted to grazing privileges on the Modoc reserve is expected to result from investigation made last week by J. W.
Nelson, national chief of grazing for the forest service. Mr. Nelson's decision is expected by the middle of October.

Salem.—The Spaulding Miami Lumber company will open its timber camp near the town of Grand Ronde Monday, according to announcement made by officials of the Charles K. Spaulding Logging company. Approximately 125 men will be employed in the camp and operations will continue throughout the winter.

Hood River.—E. B. Cloud, plant manager of the Hood River Canning company, which last year began the marketing of Clark seedling strawberries for confectionery use, worked for seven years in perfecting the process that results in a strawberry firm enough to be impaled on the forks of chocolate dippers and plunged into fondant.

St. Helens.—Duck hunters in this vicinity met with fairly good luck on the opening day of the duck season and also Saturday. They reported that the lakes are frequented by many ducks, but they are very wild. Later on in the season when the ducks get real hungry the sportsmen believe they will be less wild and better shots will be the result.

St. Helens.—W. J. Merrick, who is in charge of the sawmill being built by the Western Spar company of Portland and their recently acquired property at Columbia City, said the mill would be in operation by November 1. Twenty-two carpenters are at work on the mill foundation, and most of the necessary machinery has been assembled.

Salem.—The state irrigation securities commission, at a meeting held here Saturday, voted to guarantee interest for the next six months on $500,- 000 of bonds issued by the Medford irrigation district; also the interest on $275,000 of bonds issued by the Payette Slope irrigation district. Interest on the latter bonds was guaranteed for a period of one year.

Salem.—Salem officers Sunday had failed to find any clue to the two men who Saturday night held up Harry Brown of 171 First street, Portland, and relieved him of $619 in currency, a valuable scarfpin and a watch. The holdup occurred on the Pacific highway a short distance from Woodburn while Mr. Brown was on his way to Portland after attending the state fair.

Salem.—There were five fatalities in Oregon due to industrial accidents during the week ended September 28, according to a report prepared by the state industrial accident commission.
The victims were Arthur Anderson, carpenter, Portland; James Fielder, logger, Brookings; C. Atterbury, air-brake man, Gresham; Robert Watt, logger, Tillamook, and John H. Palmeau, teamster, Portland.

Medford.—An apple show for the Rogue River valley will be held in Medford under the auspices of the local chamber of commerce in October.
It is estimated that the commercial apple crop of the valley will be in the neighborhood of 100 cars this season, breaking the tonnage in apples in the history of the valley, and due to the heavy rain of last winter and spring the apples have attained remarkable size and fine quality.

Salem.—A total of 132,330 persons paid their way into the state fair grounds last week as against 80,118 during the state fair held here a year ago, according to the official report completed by J. E. McClintock, cashier. The receipts this year aggregated $106,754.30, as compared with $90,- 117 a year ago. Although not all the obligations contracted by this year's fair had been presented for payment, it was estimated by A. H. Lea, secretary of the state fair board, that the net profits from the 1921 event would exceed $25,000.

WRIGLEY'S P-K'S

WRIGLEY'S Newest Creation
10 for 5c

WRIGLEY'S SUGAR COATED GUM
P-K'S 10 PIECES

A delicious peppermint flavored sugar jacket around peppermint flavored chewing gum.

Will aid your appetite and digestion, polish your teeth and moisten your throat.

The Flavor Lasts

Ladies Keep Your Skin Clear, Sweet, Healthy With Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Talcum

Figs Excellent Food.
Figs, we are told, were served on aristocratic Roman tables with salt, pepper, vinegar and aromatics. They were eaten fresh, or dried in ovens, or on hurdles in the sun. The Institute regrets to be lacking in appreciation of the classics, but we recommend cream and sugar for ripe figs, Xerxes and Pliny, David and Philip, to the contrary notwithstanding. And most delicious they are—if you can get them.—Boston Globe.

The Resurrection Flower.
In Egypt is a plant called the resurrection flower. It is seen as a little ball hanging on a fragile stem, resembling in color and shape a shrunken poppy-head. Sleeping, but not dead, the flowers are aroused by being immersed in water, and then supported in an upright position. Soon the fibers begin to stir. Slowly they unfold, until, with petals thrown back, it becomes a beautiful starry flower, not unlike an aster.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Pine Tree Flag Used in Revolution.
A flag consisting of a white field with a pine tree in the center and the motto, "Appeal to Heaven," was flown by the first war vessel commissioned by General Washington at the beginning of the Revolution. It was called the pine tree flag and originated with the Massachusetts colony.

When Men Carried Handbags.
There are very few articles of feminine finery which were not first worn by the sterner sex. Earliest examples of the useful handbag were carried by the gods, priests, kings and princes of Babylon. According to the scriptures they must have been very prettily embroidered, too.

Melpomene, the Muse of Tragedy.
Melpomene, in classical mythology, was the muse that presided over tragedy. She is generally represented standing, with her left foot raised on a rock, and holding in her right hand a mask, such as was worn by tragedians.

No Feathers on Birds.
Young birds of some species possess no plumage at all in the nesting stage—not even a trace of down, says the American Forestry Magazine.
This is well seen in the young of the hornbill of certain islands of the East Indies.

Watch Cuticura Improve Your Skin.
On rising and retiring gently smear the face with Cuticura Ointment.
Wash off Ointment in five minutes with Cuticura Soap and hot water. It is wonderful sometimes what Cuticura will do for poor complexions, dandruff, itching and red rough hands.—Adv.

Reading of Good Books.
A book we may read over and over until we remember it; and, if we forget it, may again peruse it at our pleasure, or at our leisure. So that good books are a very great mercy to the world.—Richard Baxter.

They Liked Leeks.
Owing to the fondness of the Celtic tribes for the leek their descendants, the Welsh, retain it as an emblem of their nationality. The leek or leek was an important vegetable and the Anglo-Saxons called their gardens "leek gardens."

Tough Luck.
Georgia Paper—During our absence some one set fire to our office, but notwithstanding the fact that it was heavily insured, the blamed thing would not burn.—Brooklyn Eagle.

No Longer Appropriate.
An Indian named Man-Afraid-of-Nothing married a white woman in Montana not long ago, and in one week after the wedding he applied to his tribe to have his name changed.—Boston Transcript.

Innocents at Home.
Mrs. Youngbride—Jack, dear, we'll have to send that refrigerator back.
Every time the iceman puts ice in it, it begins to leak.—Boston Transcript.

Emeralds in Aztec Treasures.
Among the Aztec treasures of Mexico exquisitely cut emeralds were found and it is from this source that the magnificent emeralds now forming a part of the royal collection of Spain were supposed to have come.

Red Cross BALL BLUE
