No Ice, No Snow, No Silver Thaw, Aurora Only Got Wet.

We got wet. This valley experienced a rain this week and last, that was severe for four days, and caused our rivers and streams to crawl out over their banks. But at the same time over around LaGrande and Walla Walla they had two feet of snow. At the Dalles they had three feet of snow; in the Portland area they had four feet of snow. In the middle states blizzards. In Spokane below zero. No wonder don't you like it here? Grass is green and many roses in bloom.

The 1925 World's Fair election in Portland Saturday carried by a 4 to 1 majority. Everybody will be benefited by the Fair. It's up to the Governor now to call a special session of the legislature in order for the state to vote on the question at the next primary election.

In public opinion one Fatty Arbuckle and all filthy, uncouth, vulgar, degenerated, lucious vultures of his stripe, be they of Hollywood, Universal City, on stage or off, are condemned and detested. This low element, animal type, who have not enough work to keep their minds employed in the right channel, and have too much money to spend in a legitimate manner, should be discarded by the rank and file of all normally fair-minded people. Money may buy them out of jail, but not restore them to society that is righteous.

Tile drains can be installed more cheaply now than any time since the war began owing to the lowered cost of labor and materials. Farmers owning wet lands have an opportunity this winter of making a permanent and profitable improvement to their places and at the same time can relieve the unemployment situation.—O. A. C. Paper's small this week—a holiday.

Aurora is one incorporated town, that we know of, with city water, fire apparatus, electric lights, pavement and cement walks, and not bonded for a cent nor owe a penny. Can you equal that?

This Pacific Highway running thru Aurora will be crowded with passing money, rolling in touring cars from every state in the Union, before, during and after the 1925 Fair. Some of this money will stop and stay. Sure we are for the Fair.

Old cabbage roots, onions, and sweet corn ears left in the garden harbor maggots and ear worms over winter, and cucumber and bean beetles are known to winter over under old vines which, though frozen, afford some protection. As a consequence many of these insects reappear in the garden the next year in increasing numbers whereas they could be considerably reduced if all ground which is not now planted to any crop were plowed or thoroughly disked.—O. A. C. Experiment station.

GOT THERE BY ADVERTISING

Another instance in the chain of proofs that advertising will accomplish anything. A stranger who lived in Youngstown, Ohio, only three months was elected mayor last week through advertising. He landed with a wheelbarrow and one sack of potatoes to sell. Three percent of all total sales and receipts went to advertising. Today he has the largest market in his city. He advertises big displays and never twice alike. He is George L. Oles, who came in from the country, established a residence in a hotel and carried on an eccentric advertising campaign without the support of any particular element or organization.

Other "planks" in Oles' platform included permitting "spooning" in city parks under police protection, dismissing the entire police force if it "doesn't mend its ways" and a promise to turn over his salary to charity.

The women's vote is believed to have been responsible for Oles' election.

PATRIOTISM AT HOME [Ripon (Calif.) Record.]

Patriotism should begin at home; extend out from the home to the home town or community; thence over the country; and thence over the state and nation. The patriotism that does not include its own nest, its own family and its own surroundings, is not much patriotism, nationally or any other way. We should all think of these things continually, for they are vital to our best interests and welfare, and the best interests of our family, friends and neighbors. There is always argument on both sides of any question, but the basic facts remain, just the same, and we should not lose sight of those basic facts. As a rule goods can be purchased in the home town as cheap as in other towns or cities; not all things, but the majority of the commodities which we use. Some articles may be a bit higher once in a while, but it is equally true that some are often a bit lower, and the whole monthly account will balance pretty well, take it up one side and down the other.

But even if it did cost a trifle more to trade at home than to send money away to cities, still it would be cheaper in the long run to buy at home and let the money circulate around the town, each dollar doing a hundred dollar's worth of business before it finally slips away.

If we do not build up our own home town there will not be any home town, and all our investments in it, for homes or anything else, will fall flat, and we all lose out. Any way you want to look at this trading away from home business, it figures out a loss in the long run for everybody who engages in it as a regular thing.
