Your lovely Christmas Edition just rec. and have stopped every thing just to sit down and tell you how much we enjoy it. It certainly carries with it the old-time Christmas spirit that we all love. I always loved poems so very much and you can know I enjoyed "Jest Fore Xmas" by our much loved Eugene Field.—

Molalla Brevities
BY L. MAX HUME

In the first basket ball game for Molalla, the local High team won a 32 to 7 victory over Parkrose of Portland, last Friday. The evening was started with a game between the Parkrose girls. The score ended 12 to 10 in favor of the Senior and Sophomore girls. Next was the boys game between Molalla and Parkrose. After the game the Molalla team and student body were entertained at the Parkrose Club House with refreshments and a dance. The Molalla students left for home in the early hours but felt none the worse after the fine times given by the Parkrose students.

Pure, Fresh Candy

When you walk up to the door and SHE answers the bell — it's lucky you have the candy. You'd be speechless otherwise. You hand it to her with, "Sweets to the sweet," (if you have the nerve) and she opens it. Gee! You're glad you bought it here 'cause you know it's fresh and pure!
It's pretty small, after you have won her with sweet food and sweeter words, to forget that she likes either after you're married. Stop in today and get a box of chocolates or bon bons.
If there's sickness at your home—nerves or constipation, or that run down feeling, or heart trouble, take a package of Dr. Miles' Medicines along with the candy.
