

Auto Burns

Bert Shimmin had tough luck on his return trip from Portland late Friday night. His big "Commonwealth" car evidently sprung a gas leak. ## AN IDEAL HOTEL

Do you get "all fagged out," and long for a place to rest, when you go to Portland and walk the streets for hours? The best plan is to go first to the Palace Hotel, at 12th and Washington, register, exchange greetings with Mr. Heims, leave your suit case, lounge in the lobby, and have a home-like resting place any time of the day, right down town. The Palace Hotel is ideal; it is quiet, modern in every respect and you are sure to meet someone you know. You get the habit and will always go there.

Aurora vs. Gervais Sunday, July 16

The Aurora and Gervais ball teams will clash next Sunday on the local diamond. This is the return game with Gervais; Aurora having lost the last time to Gervais by a score of 11 to 3. This promises to be the most hotly contested game of the season, as our boys have "blood in their eyes" and are determined to win. "Snowball" Lane, if he pitches, will have as much chance as a "snowball in summer". We want everybody to come and "root" for their home team. The attendance at the games in the past has hardly been enough to pay expenses. If you like to see a good game, such as this promises to be, don't fail to come. This will be the best game and largest attended game of the season. Here's bettin.

C. L. Woodrum, from the head office of the Farm Bureau at Portland, will speak at Donald Tuesday evening July 18. All neighboring Farm Bureaus invited. Mr. Woodrum has, for a considerable time, been connected with the Washington Farm Bureau.

Miss Galbreith and Miss Black of Portland visited at the home of Mrs. Walter Fry Sunday.

Gene Garrett and wife spent the week end at the Wurster home.

Paul Siebert spent the first of the week in Portland.
