Arbuckle Pardon Arouses Protests.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Protests against the reinstatement of Roscoe Arbuckle continue to accumulate here. Official disapproval of the recent order of Will H. Hayes, titular head of the motion-picture industry, restoring to the plump comedian his right to work in the pictures, was expressed by Mayor Cryer in a telegram to Mr. Hayes, asking him to reconsider his decision.

"Truth in Fabric" Bill Meets Favor.

Washington, D. C.—Favorable report was ordered by the senate interstate commerce committee of the Capper "truth in fabric" bill to require manufacturers of woolen cloth or garments to mark the percentage of wool and other materials contained in their product.

$16,198,000 Is Postal Deficit.
Chicago, Ill.—General Charles G. Dawes, former director of the national budget, made public what he termed the "submerged" balance sheet of the postoffice department. It showed a deficit of $16,198,000 for the first three months' operation of the postal service this year.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE consists of an Ointment which Quickly Relieves by local application, and the Internal Medicine, a Tonic, which assists in improving the General Health. Sold by druggists for over 40 Years. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

Oregon City this year is facing the heaviest tax levy in the history of the municipality.

At a meeting of the Corvallis Elks' lodge it was voted unanimously to erect a $60,000 temple.

The Fairview school near Noti, 25 miles west of Eugene, has been closed on account of diphtheria.

The total tax levy in Eugene next year will be 55.1 mills, unless a reduction in the county levy is made.

Fifty-nine of the 128 school districts in Linn county voted special taxes this year, including the three union high schools.

Official totals reported indicate that the endowment fund for Willamette university has been oversubscribed by approximately $3000.

The Ashland city council has passed a graduated license fee ordinance for the selling and distributing of milk and cream in Ashland.

O. P. Hoff, state treasurer, has returned to Salem after a month spent at Los Angeles and other California cities in hope of benefiting his health.

Hay prices are soaring in Umatilla county and livestock men will be forced to resort to other feeds in a short time, if the winter weather continues.

The Irrigon Commercial club has telegraphed Senator McNary again protesting any change from the original program on the Wallula-Umatilla cut-off.

Deschutes county's levy for the coming year fixed by the county court to include the county's share of the state tax is $229,329.60, meaning a millage of 26.1.

A report submitted at a meeting of the general relief committee at Astoria showed that to date the sum of $31,756.50 had been received in cash for the relief fund.

O. A. Kratz, city manager of La Grande, has tendered his resignation to the city commission. The commission accepted his resignation, which will take effect on December 28.

The four Astoria banks have resumed business for the first time since the fire. They will begin cashing checks on old deposits as soon as they are able to open their vaults.

The Tillamook county superintendent has compiled the census reports of the various school districts for 1922, showing the total number of children of school age in the county to be 3024.

A total of $224,204.52 of improvement bonds of the city of Portland, numbered from 30443 to 30675 will be redeemed by City Treasurer Adams February 1, according to announcement.

School bonds in the amount of $3,000,000 authorized by the voters of the Portland district at a special election June 17, 1922, were held valid in an opinion handed down by the state supreme court.

District sealers of weights and measures from all sections of Oregon held their annual conference in the offices of W. A. Dalziel, deputy state sealer of weights and measure, at Salem last week.

New refrigerator cars to the number of 1030, ordered by the Pacific Fruit Express company, will be built by the Pacific Car & Foundry company of Portland. The cost of the cars will be around $3,000,000.

The Columbia River highway is cleared of snow and ice from the Portland city limits to the Multnomah county line, three-quarters of a mile east of Eagle creek, according to County Roadmaster Eatchel.

The attorney-general's office has been requested to prepare a bill for submission at the next session of the legislature looking to the repeal of that part of the election laws providing for double election boards.

Justice Thomas A. McBride of the Oregon supreme court will become chief justice of that body January 1. Justice McBride will succeed Chief Justice George H. Burnett, who has held the position two years.

A new sterilization bill to replace the law which was declared unconstitutional by the circuit court at Salem a few months ago has been prepared and will be introduced in the legislature at its next session.

The rains of the past few days in the coast section have caused the Siuslaw, Umpqua and other streams to rise rapidly and millions of feet of saw logs have been floated to the mills, according to lumbermen from those sections.

A rate of 171-2 cents a hundred pounds on cement shipped from Wehah, eastern Oregon, to Portland, over the lines of the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company was granted by the Oregon public service commission. As a result of obtaining this freight rate a cement plant will be erected at Wehah costing approximately $1,000,000.
