Chautauqua Entertainers Will Invade Canby—Program Dates Are November 22-27

The first news of the Chautauqua Festival program for this year has just been received here. That a truly gala week is in store for the lecture, music and entertainment lovers is evident from these first reports. The dates for the entertainment have been definitely set for November 22 to 27.

A trio of artists of individual achievement will be heard on the last evening. Coached by the well-known Chicago Director, Meyer Witpecki, at thoroughly satisfying musical organization is assured. Violin, cello, piano and voice in solo and ensemble, novelty selections and musical readings,—whatever you may like in music, you will be sure to find something in this program to charm and delight you.

It would be difficult indeed to imagine a more suitable opening for the Chautauqua Festival than a program by the Baldy Strang Duo. No entertainer on the Chautauqua and Lyceum platform is more in demand than Baldy Strang, with his inimitable Scotch stories and the Bagpipes. He also plays the cornet and French horn and his character make-up and impersonations are in a class by themselves. His Harry Lauder sketch is a feature of every program. Supported by Vella Neiderhauser Strang, contralto soloist and pianist, an evening of rare entertainment and delightful music is in store at Festival time.

Three one-act plays is the entertainment planned for the third night. Produced and coached at the studios of Elias Day, famous Chicago coach, The El Day Players will present their offering with all the attention to detail that has made Mr. Day's work notable in the Lyceum and Chautauqua world. The plays: "Psycho-Analysis," a charming comedy, "Her Boomerang," a satire, and "Back Home," a delightful drama. The Players: Lilla Swen-

Senators McNary and Stanford Recognize Services of Faithful Party Adherent

Washington D. C., Nov. 12.—Walter L. Tooze, Sr., of Salem, Oregon, today was recommended by Senator McNary for register of the local land office at Portland, to succeed Alexander Sweek. Senator Stanford joined in the recommendation.

Mr. Tooze, in event of a consolidation of the Portland office, has signified his readiness to accept a transfer to another office, which would leave Frank O. Northrup in charge of the consolidated office.

Walter L. Tooze, Sr. has been active in republican circles for many years and at one time was a candidate for nomination for representative in congress in the convention days. Mr. Tooze was an applicant for appointment as collector of customs, but when this job went to E. C. McFarland, the senators decided to provide a place for him in the Portland land office. For several sessions Mr. Tooze has been reading clerk of the state senate. He is the father of Walter L. Tooze, Jr., chairman of the republican state central committee.—Oregonian.

Football

In a hotly contested game Friday afternoon, Woodburn High School defeated Stayton by a score of 7 to 0. Casualties consisted of one injured, John Painter, of Hubbard, suffering a broken leg in the mix up.

Aurora is a good town to live in and there is room for you.

son, Evelyn Fonda, Raymond Adell and Roy Hess.

Emma Dee Randle, monodramatic entertainer, will give one of her exceptional programs on the Fourth evening. She has an almost unlimited repertoire and to a fascinating personality and charming graceful manner, she adds a strong dramatic power that cannot fail to win the most critical audience. Her impersonations are irresistibly funny—tears and laughter come at will under the magnetic influence of her clear, true and sympathetic voice.

Of outstanding importance will be the lecture by Dr. Mattison Wilbur Chase on the second evening. Dr. Chase has made mankind his study for many years and as a result is known the length and breadth of America for his splendid "human interest" lectures. "Sight and Insight" is a skillful delineation of the rare art of seeing, and Dr. Chase illustrates with story, argument and funny anecdote the importance of "The Point of View." A magnetic speaker with a message teeming with logic and good common sense.

Personal Notes of Interest Gathered Here and There

Robert Bonney is erecting a new building on his lot.

Ezra Hurst and wife were in Portland Saturday.

Mrs. Vera Shimmis was visiting in Aurora the fore part of the week.

John Knight, of Portland, was in town Sunday to attend the funeral of Miss Wagner.

Miss Orletta Kraus and Miss Bertha Peaper, of Portland, were Armistic Day visitors in Aurora.

Mr. Carl Kode, of Oakland, Cal., has been spending a few days at the home of Mr. Edward Muecke.

Mrs. B. T. Gray, of Goldendale, Wash., and daughters, were short time callers in Aurora Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Kraus were visitors at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition last Saturday.

Howard Scheurer, of Grass Valley, Oregon, was a Sunday guest at the home of his aunt, Mrs. A. W. Kraus.

A. J. Dietz and family left Friday for Forest Grove. Mr. Dietz will work for a lumber company, hauling lumber.

Mrs. Kenneth Banister, of Wheeler, Oregon, is a guest of her mother, Mrs. Frank Thompson, at the Aurora Cafe this week.

E. L. Knapp, of Eugene, and Herbert Golding, of Portland, passed thru Aurora Sunday evening on their way to Eugene.

Parts for all cars, trucks, and tractors. W. E. Burns—Dan Burns (Not Brothers—Same Man.) High St., at Ferry, Salem, Oregon. 46tc

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Robinson and son, Edwin, drove to Portland Saturday to take in the football game between U. of O. and Stanford University.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church will hold an apron sale and cake and food sale on Saturday, November 24, beginning at 3:45-3t.

Miss Wilma Johnson will take Mrs. Booth's position in the grade school of Aurora, commencing her duties next Monday. Miss Johnson is a resident of Sheridan, in this state.

Theodore Resch returned Tuesday from the Pacific International Livestock Exposition in Portland loaded with honors, having captured something like $200 in cash prizes on his Chester White swine.

If the gravel apron to the pavement recently scattered over the streets of Aurora is a fair sample of the highway commission's work, we could well dispense with it. The streets are now well nigh impassable for anyone not equipped with a pair of high topped rubber boots.

Among those taking in the Pacific International Livestock Exposition last Thursday was D. A. Yoder and his father, D. E. Yoder, of Needy. Mr. Yoder states that his father sold on that day two purebred Jerseys, receiving therefor the sum of $615.00.

Mrs. Carl V. Booth, who has taught since the first of the term in the Aurora Graded School, and who, we understood, was to have continued through the year, has resigned and will leave Aurora after the end of this school week.

OBITUARY

Johanna Wagner

Johanna Wagner passed away at her home Thursday evening, November 8, 1923. She was the last surviving member of the David Wagner family, an old pioneer family who came to Oregon in 1868.

She was born in Menaca, Pennsylvania, June 4th, 1862. At an early age she moved with her parents to Bethel, Missouri, and at the age of 21 moved to Oregon, where she has resided ever since. She had been ill for the past four or five years, but was only confined to her bed for four weeks before her death. She leaves to mourn her several nieces and nephews.

Syvett Erickson

Syvett Erickson, a native of Norway, was born October 19, 1844, and died at his home in Barlow Tuesday morning at 8:00 o'clock. Funeral services were held today at the family home, in charge of S. A. Miller. Mr. Erickson leaves to mourn his loss a widow and a son, James Erickson, who conducts a general merchandise store at Yoder.

Inger Moline Danielson

Mrs. Inger Moline Danielson died at her home in Canby at 9:00 o'clock Tuesday morning. She was 74 years of age, having been born in Norway, August 1st, 1849. Funeral services will be held this afternoon, arrangements being under the supervision of Mr. Miller. Interment in Zion Cemetery.

Never be a fool. Look at the practical side of things.

Community Club Meet Well Attended and a Decided Success

The Aurora Community Club met in the I. O. O. F. Hall Tuesday evening pursuant to previous call for a supper and social evening. Nothing in previous meetings of the organization, so far as we are informed, has done more to promote the true community spirit. Besides the actual members of the club and their wives, there were present by invitation many of our fellow townsmen and ladies who all seemed to enjoy the festivities to the full. A hearty repast, such as only Aurora is accustomed to offer, was followed by toasts responded to in the spirit of the occasion and everyone seemed to feel that this occasion was only one of many other similar treats which should follow in its wake. There were present some sixty odd people who after the spread enjoyed music and a general relaxation from the cares of life. We venture to hope that a repetition will be vouchsafed in the near future.

Entertain Friends at '500'

Mr. and Mrs. Collins Graham entertained a number of friends and relatives at their home near Butteville Saturday evening, November 10th, the house being beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and yellow and gold streamers of paper. "500" was the order of the evening after which refreshments were served.

First prizes were won by Mr. Carl Dempsey and Mrs. Emma M. Barlow. Second prizes, Mr. Joe Graham and Mrs. Jerome Epperly.

The entire crowd remained all night and Sunday one of the old fashioned good time dinners was immensely enjoyed by all. Good cheer and the many good things to eat made the day pass all too soon.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mowers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dempsey, Mr. Martin Schreiner, Mr. James Schreiner, Mrs. Emma Barlow, Mrs. E. M. Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vaughan, Miss Reva Barlow and Miss Etheloy Dempsey, of Portland; Mrs. Jane Graham, Joe Graham, Elwood Graham, Mrs. Sidney Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Epperly, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bauman, Mr. and Mrs. Collins Graham.

Card Party

Mr. and Mrs. U. Eilers entertained a number of friends Sunday evening. "500" was enjoyed during the evening. Mr. Henry Kreis winning head prize. Delicious refreshments were served. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Homer Kruse, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Robinson, Mrs. Frances Green, Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Kreis, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Pahl, Mr. Walter Bryan, of Portland, the Misses Fay and Luille Kreis, Dolf Kruse, Vernon and Melvin Eilers, Edwin Robinson.

Effort Made to Secure Exhibits by Corn Growers of Aurora District

Efforts are being made by the Salem Chamber of Commerce to secure corn exhibits from corn growers in the Aurora neighborhood for the annual Marion County Corn Show to be held in the Salem armory three days and evenings beginning Thursday, November 22. Eighteen corn growers near Aurora have been invited to send their exhibits.

Although Aurora corn growers were not fortunate enough to win prizes, Woodburn growers were more fortunate and Harry Hughes, A. E. Hughes and Harley Hughes were awarded a number of prizes.

Efforts are being made to have all the Woodburn growers who exhibited last year to come again this year and bring others with them. Also to have Aurora growers of corn well represented.

Governor Pierce will speak Thursday evening, Nov. 22, and A. S. Dudley, manager of the State Chamber of Commerce, the second evening. All awards will be made by professors from the Oregon Agricultural College.

Aurora School Notes

Miss Johnson, who will teach in the Primary room for the rest of the term, is here visiting in the school. Mrs. Booth has resigned and will go to Hood River to live.

Last Friday, November 9th, the school children gave a program commemorating the signing of the Armistice.

The football team fought hard last Friday, but the Hubbard team played harder. Score 26 to 0. But watch us next Friday.

Macksburg Boys Win Prizes

Ferdinand Kraxberger, Roy Harms and Wilmer Harms took second prize in the Stock Judging Contest at the International Exposition last Tuesday. Twenty-seven teams from Washington, Idaho, California and Oregon competed. These three boys represented Clackamas county, having won first place for their team in the judging at the Clackamas County Fair this fall. Roy Harms took second prize in the individual stock judging.
