S. P. TO BOOST WEST ABROAD; EUROPEAN AGENTS SEE OREGON

European agents of Southern Pacific company who have just made a visit to Oregon in order to get a better knowledge of its attractions. They will "sell" the state in Europe. From left to right are V. Mylrea of Liverpool; G. Ruhr, Hamburg; V. Merello, Genoa; H. Desmidt, Paris, and R. G. Bonsor of London.

OREGON is to become still better known to travelers and business men of Europe.

Five European representatives of Southern Pacific company have just made a trip through Oregon in order to better acquaint themselves with the scenic attractions and economic resources of the state. With this more intimate knowledge of the state they will be in a better position to serve both the interests of Oregon and those of Europeans in carrying out their duties with the railroad company. Having been in Oregon they can more accurately and easily furnish information to people planning to come to the United States, or who ship or receive freight to or from the state.

The foreign agents have been spending a month visiting various sections of the Pacific coast served by Southern Pacific, accompanied by L. H. Nutting of the company's New York office. They traveled during the daylight hours only so that the members of the party could get a good idea of the character of every section visited.

The visit of the European representatives of the Southern Pacific is expected to be of importance in improving the business relations between the Pacific coast and the countries of Europe. It is said to be the first time that a transcontinental railroad has brought its foreign agents here for an intensive study of local conditions.

Members of the party are V. Mylrea of Liverpool; G. Ruhr, Hamburg; V. Merello, Genoa; H. Desmidt, Paris, and R. G. Bonsor of London.

A Worthy Cause

A NEWS ARTICLE which we publish today sets forth some of the main facts regarding the progress of the University of Oregon gift campaign. It is a worthy movement, well deserving of the support of every man and woman who believes in the University of Oregon and who favors giving the rising generation of boys and girls their maximum chance in the world through the equipment of higher education.

The University of Oregon has in recent years been faced with a serious problem. Its attendance has been growing faster than have its facilities or its maintenance funds. In 1913-14 there were 732 students enrolled. Today there are 2,389. For this year the total will reach 2500. Within the ten-year period just past the enrollment in Oregon's high schools has almost trebled. Ten times as many high school graduates are going to higher institutions of learning as were going ten years ago. On the basis of all this it may be confidently predicted that attendance at the University of Oregon will double again within the next five years.

In 1920 the University of Oregon received from the state under the millage bills $806,497. In 1924 it will receive $848,820. Thus the income from the state in four years has increased 5 per cent. Attendance in that four years has increased 39 per cent, eight times as fast. Obviously a 5 per cent increase in income will not take care of a 39 per cent increase in attendance. The University must increase its income. Oregon is tax-burdened already, and the University does not desire to go to the taxpayers for a larger millage tax. Hence the gift campaign.

Through this gift campaign the University hopes to raise $5,000,000 in five years. The money will be expended for new buildings and increased facilities. The University alumni have undertaken to raise $1,000,000 for three principal buildings. The current student body will finance another building, the Student-Union. Citizens of Eugene have undertaken to raise $500,000 for a University auditorium. Thus a very substantial beginning has been made. A little later the intensive campaign is to ramify. The whole public will be asked to participate. It is a worthy cause.

Hard Boiled

The waitress, very much out of sorts, sailed haughtily up to the table at which sat the grouchy customer. She slammed down the cutlery, snatched a napkin from a pile and tossed it in front of him.

Then, striking a furious pose, she glared at him.

"Whatcha want?" she snapped.

"Couple of eggs," growled the diner.

"How ya want 'em?"

"Just like you are."—Notre Dame Juggler.

Watchful Idling

The world treats the momentous business of spooning as a joke.

"My little man," a deacon said to a small boy, "have you no better way of spending this holy Sabbath afternoon than idling away your time on your front lawn?"

"I ain't idlin' away no time," the little man exploded. "There's a feller inside spoonin' with my sister, and she's payin' me a nickel an hour to watch out for pop and mom."

King George Saves Time

King George's estate at Sandringham is the one spot in England where daylight saving is used the year around, and has been for more than fifty years. During all this time the clocks have been kept half an hour ahead of Greenwich time, and the reason was to insure punctuality. King Edward, who had the reputation of never being late, even to tea, introduced the idea when he was prince of Wales and it was soon taken up by the nobles who lived in the community.

An Easy One

"That artist daubing his brush upon his palette reminds me of two women kissing each other."

"How so?"

"He's mixing paint."

A Duplicate

A citizen was seen standing in a dejected attitude before a lamp post. "Well, Maria," he mumbled, "I know I'm drunk. Why don't you say something?"—Bughouse Bugle.
