THE OBSERVER

Pig He Didn't Have Needed Lots of Mash

John D. Shelton, living two miles east of town, on a rented farm, was arrested Saturday, on a charge of having liquor mash in his possession. Fifty bushels of corn mash and 10 gallons of fermented prunes, a coil and a large copper can were found by Deputy Sheriff Bremner.

Shelton accounted for the presence of the mash by saying it was to be used for hog feed. As no hogs were in sight he was asked how many hogs he had and replied that he used to have one but he had sold it.

At the hearing in Salem Shelton plead guilty and he was released on bail, sentence being deferred, as he has a crop of hops he wished to harvest.—Hubbard Enterprise.

Deputy County Game Warden Spencer was in Aurora Wednesday. Mr. Spencer says the law against shooting on the highway will be strictly enforced. Too many people are in the habit of shooting from the car, while others trespass upon private lands.

Kisses

The safest time to kiss is midnight. The most dangerous time is early in the morning, germs having accumulated during the night. As the hours roll by germs are gradually eliminated from their favorite nest—mouth and lips. Even at four in the afternoon kissing still is risky.
