Mrs. Matt Ban Passes

Mrs. Matt Ban, 61, died at Yakima, Wash., February 12, after an illness of two years.

She was born in Austria in 1875 and came to the United States in 1901. She lived at Hubbard for about three years, then moved to the Meridian section, near Aurora, where she has lived continuously up to the time of her death. Two months ago Mrs. Ban was taken to Yakima for the benefit of her health, the change of climate at first being beneficial.

The deceased is survived by her widower, and four sons, Ivan Ban of Portland, and Pete, Tom and Gene Ban of R. 2, Aurora.

Funeral services were held at Canby last Monday, with interment in the New Era cemetery.

At a special session of Venus chapter, O. E. S., degrees were conferred on J. F. Dolsen with Mrs. Dolsen as eoductress. Members of Newberg chapter were invited guests and the matron and patron, Mrs. Lenore Stone and Herbert Swift, were given special honors as was Frank Baldwin, past grand patron, who is also a member of Newberg chapter. By special request Mr. Baldwin gave one of the lectures during the initiation ceremony.

Refreshments followed in the dining room at tables centered with pussywills and valentine decorations. The committee was composed of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. John Kister and Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Giesy.

Mrs. Stone extended an invitation to members of the local chapter to visit Newberg chapter March 5, when they will entertain the grand associate conductress, Mrs. Helen Friday, who will act as deputy for the worthy grand matron, and inspect the ritualistic work of the chapter.

Mrs. A. E. Evans and children of Portland, spent the past week here with her mother, Mrs. Mae St. Helen. Miss Bernadine St. Helen accompanied her sister back to Portland for the week end.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends for their assistance and manifestations of sympathy occasioned by the death of our beloved wife and mother. And especially are we thankful for the floral offerings at the funeral and grave.

MATT BAN AND FAMILY

Items From the Observer Columns Twenty Years Ago

February 17, 1916

At the council meeting it was decided to aid in the construction of a city hitching shed by contributing an amount equal to that contributed by private citizens. About $150 has so far been subscribed by individuals. This insures a fund of more than $300.

Last Sunday Mrs. E. G. Carpenter was surprised on her birthday by the members of her family. Those who came for the birthday reunion were Mr. and Mrs. John Carpenter and children of Salem; Mrs. Alice Roth and children of Canby; Mrs. Amy Roberts and Lee Carpenter of Canby.

G. A. Ehlen has moved into the house recently vacated by Dr. Fuller, and George Askin Jr. will move into the bungalow vacated by Mr. Ehlen.

After next Saturday, February 19, Cole's mill will grind but once a week—on Saturdays only.

The Best "1916" Joke

J. George Wurster, of the Aurora Meat Market, unwittingly started the best 1916 joke that has appeared since Oregon followed in the wake of Kansas.

One day last week he dropped into the Wurtzel kaths Keller next door and requested the polite attendant to give him some of the "rough stuff." He stowed away the exhilarating (?) beverage, smacked his lips and departed hence.

There happened to be two traveling men sitting at a nearby card table, one of whom got an earful of the transaction at the bar. Undoubtedly he had visions of having landed on an oasis in the arid, barren waste. He briskly approached the mahogany and ordered up a round of that "rough stuff." He was the first to get outside the "life saver," he awaited results, then lamped his partner.

"Hell," he said, "it's only cider!"

Aurora Rod & Gun Club Shoot

On account of the cold, stormy day, very few attended the shoot last Sunday. The following is a list of the shooters and their scores:

	Shot	Out of
Bob Bittick	50	75
Fred Dolsen	42	50
Chas. Feller	43	50
Ben Stoner	21	25
Glen Foster	21	50
Art Schneider	44	55
Melvin Eyans	29	50
Fred Kerr	19	25

Don't forget the shoot at the Aurora Rod & Gun club grounds every Sunday at 9:30 a. m. Everyone welcome.

Co-operative Livestock Shipping

A new plan of livestock marketing has been inaugurated in this community which is proving very satisfactory.

The plan is for a bonded truck to go to each farm that has livestock ready for shipment, pick up any number at each farm until the truck is loaded, then send it to market with a man who knows how to get all the benefits of a competitive market.

John Zumstein, Woodburn, who is in charge of shipping, keeps in constant contact with Portland markets, and will advise the producer any time as to what he can expect for his stock.

It has been suggested that before

Butteville News

Hostesses for a "500" party for the benefit of Butteville Grange No. 74, Friday evening February 14, were Mrs. Ira Northup and Mrs. James Wallace, at the Northup home on the River road. There were 12 tables of cards. Prize winners were high, Mrs. Ira Northup, and Ray Yergen; second high, Mrs. George Clark and Fred Dentel. The Valentine box of candy was drawn by John Kister as the door prize. Valentine colors were used by the hostesses in serving a delightful lunch.

This was the third party in the series and the next will be at the E. W. Bauman home February 28, with Mrs. E. W. Bauman and Mrs. Paul Bauman as hostesses.

Mrs. Jack Bush of Donald, won the grange quilt that was presented during the evening.

Donald Items

Donald lodge, No. 166, A. F. & A. M. met last week with the master, Bruno Stuve, presiding. Plans were made for the annual "homecoming" to be held at the next meeting March 14. The stewards, M. H. Evans and G. B. Ackerson, served refreshments.

Harry Hagen was expected home permanently on Tuesday from a three months' stay in the Veterans' hospital in Portland. Hagen fell from a scaffold while painting the A. E. Feller house and broke his leg above the ankle.

A special school election was called February 14 to elect a board member for the unexpired term of Paul Perketta, who has moved from the district. Norman Yergen succeeded Perketta as chairman of the board. Mrs. Ben Eppers is the third member. The Perketta have moved to Canby where they have purchased a filling station and lunch room. Two daughters, Helen and Francys, attended the local school and were active in 4-H club work.
