Sunday school at 10, with Bible class for adults, and services at 11:15. We are observing Parents' day (open house) during the Sunday school hour. A hearty invitation is extended all parents, and especially the ones who have children enrolled in the school, to come and see for themselves what and how their child is taught. We want you to feel that this is your school, in which your interest plays a vital part.

Lenten services continue this Friday at 7:30 p. m. under the theme: "Simon, Christ's Fellow-Crossbearer." "To stand under the cross of Jesus, as all do who come to Lenten services, is a matchless privilege, and great is the loss of all who do not make full use of the opportunity. We are not worthy to stand there. But God gives us the right, nevertheless, and in His Name we extend the invitation to you as well. Will you not come?"

Aurora School News

By JUNE SWAN

Mr. Geren, a representative of the Marion county department of health, finished taking samples of water from town. The results will help determine whether certain persons will win scholarships to the Corvallis summer school. Milk samples will be taken later.

The eighth grade made posters pertaining to transportation. Separate committees were as follows: Donald Cruikshank and Jewel Smith, airplanes; Lola Walter, June Swan and Lorraine Fredrikson, trains and automobiles; Bob Hunt and Billy Cole, ships. The posters were used in the democracy class.

Hubbard was caused to forfeit all basketball games played, due to the ineligibility of one player. Hubbard was in the same league as Aurora.

Gloria Miley, who has been absent for several weeks, is back in school.

In the fifth and sixth grade health class last Thursday, it was decided to choose sides and make posters. The side with the best posters was to give the opponents a party.

Wayne Harding made a visit to the school and gave the fifth and sixth grades a test in arithmetic.

Frank Clyde from Monroe, Wn., has entered the second grade.

Marvin Keil, Norman Kee and Lucille Colvin brought spring bouquets to school this week.

All four rooms have brightly colored decorations on their windows and all about the rooms.
