IDA WHITLOCK.

Friends of Mrs. Ida Whitlock, who for many years was a resident of Beaverton, but late of Portland, will be sorry to hear of her death in Portland, March 12.

Mrs. Whitlock was 58 years of age and leaves four sisters: Mrs. Mary Dunham, of Santa Rosa, Cal.; Mrs. Lydia McCool, Olympia, Wash.; Mrs. Emma Golden of Kansas, and Mrs. Villa Schaefer, Elgin, Iowa.

R. T. Byrnes Funeral home, Portland, have charge of arrangements. The funeral will be announced later.

BUY SOME LAND.

Just one thing you can own with confidence and satisfaction, and that is a piece of earth beneath your feet. That is real wealth and that's why land that a man or woman owns is called real estate.

A real old-time auction sale will be held March 27, at 2 o'clock, one mile west of Beaverton, 1/4 mile south of St. Mary's on rock road. This will be a sale of a new plastered modern 4-room house and two acres. E. E. Swenson will be auctioneer.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Second and Main

The Evangelistic meetings now in progress are attracting much attention. People are coming from miles around to hear Evangelist Baird. Those who have heard him do not hesitate to proclaim him a truly great preacher. Seldom does such an opportunity come to many of us to listen to a man of his ability. A man of unusual eloquence as a pulpit orator, he moves you to think of higher things.

Just ask the man who has heard him. Hear him yourself. Every night except Monday.

We wish to urge you to be with us in the Bible school, Sunday at 9:45 a. m. Interest in the Bible school is growing. In spite of the rain last Lord's day, we had one of the largest attendances that we have ever had. There were 26 men in the Men's class and 29 women in the Women's class. We plan for at least 125 in the Bible school as a whole next Sunday. The men want 35 men in their class. Evangelist Baird will teach this class. Brother Baird is the organizer and teacher of a class of men in Santa Cruz, Cal., with an enrollment of 130. Whether you are a man, woman or child, we have a place for you. Come help us reach our goal and find that you have been missing something really worthwhile. We are in a contest with the Christian Bible school at Carlton. The following points count:

Present on time	1
Bible	1
Studied lesson	1
Offering	1
Staying for church	1
Total	5

Will you be a star, making all five points? Make as many as you can. Be sure and hear Billy Baird.

A REAL BOOSTER.

The Martin Grocery received a letter here from a Beaverton man who works in Portland, asking them to make a large delivery of groceries to his home.

Here is a real booster. He is a busy business man, he did not have time to call, so instead of picking up his supplies in Portland, he took time to write a letter and patronize a home store.

This man is a real booster for this community. Why not make a promise to ourselves and do all our buying in Beaverton.

RAYMOND FAWCETT.

Raymond Stewart Fawcett was born June 7, 1886, at Oskaloosa, Kansas. He died March 9, 1927, at the Emanuel hospital in Portland, Oregon, after an illness of several weeks duration. He was taken in the very prime of life.

He leaves to mourn his departure, four sisters: Mrs. Lydia Kinsey, Beaverton; Mrs. Bertha Swaggert, Portland; Mrs. Mary Brown, Taft, Cal.; and Mrs. Grace Friel, Havensville, Kan.; and two brothers, Warren Fawcett, Prague, Okla., and Ernest Fawcett, Butte, Mont.

Beside these brothers and sisters, he leaves a number of other relatives and a host of friends. Mr. Fawcett was well known and liked in this community, as was evidenced by the large number present at the funeral services.

Funeral services were held from the Beaverton Church of Christ, at 2 p. m., March 12. The body was interred in the Crescent Grove cemetery. The local Odd Fellows and Rebekahs had charge of the services at the cemetery.

J. Frank Cunningham, minister of the Church of Christ, delivered the sermon. The undertakers were from the Miller & Tracy company, in Portland.

ALOHA

Dorchen Hochschild visited friends at Aloha Thursday night.

Mrs. E. K. Burton from Marshfield, Or., visited her sister, Mrs. Viola Sunburg and family Saturday evening and Sunday.

Mrs. Rosenbrough, who has been quite sick is improving slowly.

Mrs. Earl Watts, of Portland, was visiting old time friends at Aloha over Sunday.

Mrs. Barker, who was on the sick list is able to be out again.

The church choir are practicing for Easter. Be sure and keep that date open to attend church. It will be worth your while.

The Silver tea of Queen Esther Circle will meet with Mrs. Eckler, Thursday, March 24. Mrs. Eckler and Mrs. Ellison entertaining.

Under the capable leadership of Mrs. Tobias her Sunday school class has been organized into the Rose Bud Chapter, having their meeting the first Friday night of each month with a potluck supper at the church, then business session, program and social time, later having hikes and outdoor sports.

A number of Odd Fellows helped officiate at the funeral of Geo. Fawcett in Beaverton last Saturday afternoon.

The play "The Clod Hopper" by the B. Y. P. U. is getting under way. Be sure to watch for notice of date.

The Boy Scouts are planning a wienie roast Friday night, March 25.

Mrs. Carney gave a luncheon at the school house for the Aloha-Huber teachers, Tuesday, March 15.

The mother and sister of W. E. Ener spent Sunday with him.

Mrs. Will Brown spent a few days visiting Mrs. Barber last week.

Mrs. J. Eral Axley from Sacramento, Cal., is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. H. Tuohy.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Prink of St. Helens are visiting parents and friends in Aloha.

The Willamette Baptist Young People's association are holding a banquet for their young people at the Hinson Memorial church, Friday, March 25, at 6 o'clock.

A good time has been planned, toasts, song and yells from each society, also good eats. Tickets may be purchased from Helen Lindall at 50c for a whole evening of fun.

Harold Lee, little son of Leon Lee, was operated on for appendicitis last week at Emanuel hospital and is getting along nicely.

Rev. O. C. Wright was here last Thursday night with moving pictures of work being done over the state by Baptist state convention and the summer assembly held at McMinnville, Or., last July. The main church was full and some were pleased to see local people in moving pictures.

Mrs. J. H. Hathaway, Mrs. Ted Wheeler's mother, was operated on at St. Vincent hospital and is getting along as well as could be expected.

Bill Gardiner, a former Aloha barber, is building on his Redville acreage.

Contractor S. G. Rogers reports that the new home being erected for Harry Sidwell, just north of the highway at Aloha, is rapidly nearing completion. This is a modern dwelling in every respect, with full basement, to cost about $4500, and will be a welcome addition to the many beautiful homes in this district.

General Merchant H. A. Lowry, of the Aloha Mercantile Co., has bought a nice home site on the highway, just west of the Henry Neilson home at Aloha. Mr. Lowry contemplates the improvement of his property with a modern dwelling in the near future.

John Schilling has been quite ill for the past week with the flu. Mr. Schilling could not leave his place of business to go home to bed, as he had no one to leave in charge. He is feeling better now, and says that being sick and having to work is not the most pleasant combination.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Beiers, of Multnomah, have bought from W. G. Clark a pretty acre tract with new
