

ALOHA NEWS

Mrs. Geo. Sollers and daughter, Gladys, of Huber, spent the week end at Rockaway Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. George Noyes of Portland, was a visitor at his mothers home, Mrs. George Sollers, of Huber, Sunday.

There will be a baseball game between Middleton and Aloha-Huber schools on Friday, April 1. The boys have been working hard and expect to do their best for the purple and white. Last Friday the first team won from the juniors by the score of 12 to 6. The juniors have some promising material. Montgomery, Koch, Mann, Schilling and Metzel will form a nucleus for a good team as soon as they get older.

The lineup for Friday will probably be Brandel, Prinke, Stickney, Simonton, Smith, Tetwiler, Barber, Jackman and Rohrback.

There will be a mass meeting at the Huber Commercial club Friday evening, April 1. It is a get-together meeting for our community. Let's all be there.

Lucile Sponer of Molalla, Or., is a new pupil of the Aloha-Huber school, grade 7; Richard Trahen, also of Molalla, grade 3; Florence Chase, Molalla, grade 6; Marie Chase, Molalla, grade 3; Alva Chase, Molalla, grade 5; Pauline Buchanan, Portland, grade 6; Mary Foster and June Foster of Multnomah, grade 5.

The Aloha-Huber school is increasing fast in number.

Mrs. Tuttle's sewing class met at her home at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, March 22.

Matt King, of the Aloha Lumber company, is delivering material this week to the Frank Reed place, north of Huber. Mr. Reed has a nice five-acre tract and is improving the property with a chicken house 20x50 and a barn, 24x36, and will also remodel the residence.

A. W. Moore, an employe of the U. S. biological survey, has received orders transferring him to Salt Lake City, Utah, and will leave with his family for that city in about two weeks. While this transfer will mean a merited promotion in the service for Mr. Moore, the many Aloha friends of this estimable family will regret to learn of their departure.

Frank Gaunt, Sr., started work Saturday on the erection of a four-room modern cottage on a pretty acre tract adjoining his present home on the south at Aloha and expects to have it ready for occupancy in about six weeks.

Mrs. Shoemaker left the last of the week for a short visit with relatives and friends at Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Vaughters received a telegram advising them of the serious illness of the eldest daughter at Ecorse, Mich., and left Sunday for that city to be at her bedside.

Can a man open a box with a hatchet in one hand and a hammer in the other? Can he use both hands at the same time? A reporter stepped into the Aloha Mercantile company Wednesday and one of the proprietors was bending over a box with a hatchet in one hand and a hammer in the other.

The Aloha Grain and Feed store expects a car of scratch, dairy feed and egg mash next week.

The Garrow garage received a new coat of paint Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sidwell motored to the Sandy and brought back a lot of smelt.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Flynn, of Linton, visited Mr. and Mrs. Matt King Tuesday. They were on their way to Hoquiam, Wash., where they will reside.

Frank Reed of Huber, is building a chicken house to hold 1000 chickens and a barn at Huber. Lumber was secured thru the Aloha Lumber company.

Matt King has rented his bungalow on Wheeler avenue to J. F. Maxwell, the Aloha baker.

Mrs. J. H. Sidwell was a visitor in Salem Monday.

J. H. Sidwell expects to move into their new home next week. The floors were sanded Wednesday.

Mesdames Thoms, McKeown, Stickney, Anderson and Haynes were in attendance at the teacher's institute under the leadership of Miss Helen Cowgill held at Forest Grove Saturday. The ladies report a most enjoyable and instructive meet.

Harry MacLeod is the proud possessor of a new Chevrolet sedan purchased this week, and is especially busy right now trying to teach the new Hoover traffic code, with hopes to succeed by the time Mrs. MacLeod returns from a visit with relatives and friends in southern California next week.

The Beaverton Realty company has rented the former Stout house on the old county road to Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan, who occupy it while they are building a new modern residence on Wheeler avenue.

BARNES NEIGHBORHOOD.

Helen and Winifred Berst are still absent from school because of whooping cough.

Charles Barry, one of the fourth grade students, has a bad cold.

Miss Clara Trachsel returned home from Huber over the week-end.

Gladys Young was absent Monday because of sickness.

Sunday callers at the John Trachsel home were Retter, Graham, Hiestler and the Shrim families.

Frank Reed is planning on building a large chicken house at Huber. He is tiling his land and will be able to get in the crop earlier.

R. R. Marvin, who has been working for the McCready Lumber Co., motored to Timber, Sunday. He will be employed there to fell timber.

William Green, former merchant of Aloha and his sister, Mrs. Grace Mathews, moved Saturday to the Montavilla district on the east side of Portland, where they have bought a suburban grocery store. During a number of years residence in Aloha these people made a large number of friends who all wish them success in their new venture.

FAIRVALE.

The Fairvale baseball club will give a dance at the club house on Wednesday evening (April 6).

Dr. Vinton Scott was host at a wedding reception for his brother, of Seattle, Dr. Percy Scott.

Mr. Wood who teaches the adult class in Multnomah Sunday school conducted the Sunday school at Fairvale last Sunday.

The Cadman Music club of which Mrs. E. R. Trayle is president, enjoyed a theater party and supper Tuesday evening.

The Paradise club entertained their families Wednesday night at the club house. Moving pictures and a spelling bee were the diversions of the evening.

The money to pay the interest due on the Gold notes of the Community club is on deposit in Multnomah bank.

HILLSDALE.

Mrs. N. Sorber has returned from a visit with friends at Waldport.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Thompson and son spent the week-end at Netarts, Or.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Hadley had as week-end guests, their daughter, Mrs. Yarbo.

N. A. Nelson's father from Bellingham, Wash., returned home from a visit to his son.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Noakes entertained the community club on Wednesday, March 23. Five hundred was enjoyed.

The Parent-Teacher card party was held at Mrs. Bruggers home on Friday, March 25 and was well attended. Mrs. Beardsley won first prize and Mrs. Mellon the consolation prize.

Frank Etheridge, son of Mrs. Hadley, is visiting his mother at her home, and expects to leave soon for his regiment at Fort Scott, Cal.

We wish to remind members of the Parent-Teacher association and their friends of the "food sale" to be held at the J. C. Nelson store on Saturday, April 2.

HITEON.

The Bible and Teachers' Training class met at the home of Mrs. Charles Van Kleek Monday evening.

We have received the return from the examination we took on the Old Testament. All passed, and we feel like making another try when it comes time for the New Testament examination.

The Hiteon Progressive club met at the home of Mrs. Herman Metzentine Wednesday. Mr. Fernanga, of Silverton, gave a very interesting talk on "Helping Your Community." We feel sure that all who heard him gained a great deal. Following the meeting the hostess served a delicious lunch. The next meeting is a business meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Struthers.

Miss Irene Hansen underwent an operation at the Portland Surgical hospital Friday morning. She is getting along nicely.

The Hiteon Busy Bees held their picnic social and program Friday evening. A neat sum was raised, full report of which may be made after the next meeting of the club which will be held Thursday. We wish to express our sincere thanks to all those who so kindly helped us.

Miss Dorothy Struthers was one of the ushers at the senior class play given by the Girls' Polytechnic school of Portland Friday evening.

Mr. Nelson has been ill at his home with a cold.

Miss Helen Bui, of Portland, was a week-end guest at the home of her cousin, Miss Florence Selander.

Mrs. Peterson and sons, Karl and Kenneth, attended the four senior plays given by the Girls' Polytechnic school of Portland, Friday evening.

Miss Grace Behm, Mrs. Sylvester and R. S. Robinson were Beaverton visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Van Kleek and daughter, Effie, attended the county institute and club leaders meeting at Forest Grove Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Struthers attended the T. T. T. meeting and movie, "McFadden's Flat," at the Liberty theater in Portland Saturday.

The Misses Genevieve and Dorothy Peterson and Messrs. Karl and Kenneth Peterson were dinner guests of Miss Margaret Odmark of Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cyrus, of McMinnville, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Kleek and daughter, Effie and Miss Ethel North attended the special all-day program held at the Methodist Episcopal church of Forest Grove Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Carlson were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Neely of Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schmeltzer, of Mountside and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmeltzer of Hillsboro, were guests at the Metzentine home Sunday.

SHAHAPTA.

Miss Wendy F. Butler, Correspondent

George Beasley, from San Francisco, visited his brother, P. W. Beasley.

Miss Violet Kirschner had a bridge party in honor of Miss Rogers, of Pendleton, Or.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Johnson and family, from Portland, visited Beasley's Sunday.

Mrs. W. G. Lynn, of Portland, spent Thursday with her niece, Mrs. F. A. Beebe.

George C. Beebe, father of F. A. Beebe, returned home Tuesday to Centralia, after spending two weeks at Shahapta and Corvallis.

A most enjoyable evening was spent by a number of Shahaptians at a dance and card party held by Maplewood Commercial club Friday.

MAPLEWOOD.

The Commercial club reported a good attendance at their dance and card party Friday night, the proceeds amounting to over $70.

Mrs. Lister entertain last Saturday with a bridge party for her new daughter-in-law, Mrs. Edgar Lister. Those present were Mesdames Van Lorie, R. Reynolds, H. Reynolds, A. A. Andrews, Nichols, Thayer, Wendland, A. Hyatt and G. Cantrell. Mrs. R. Reynolds won first prize. Delightful refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Avery motored to Sutherland, Or., last Saturday, where they will spend a few days visiting friends and relatives.

Elmerina Thoreson and Adelaide Skare are home ill with the measles.

ST. CLARE'S PARISH.

The St. Clare's Dramatic club gave a vaudeville entertainment on Friday evening, March 25, 1927. Those who took part were Frank Twiss, Jr., Albert Brosseau, Charles Weigel, Leslie Page, Laurence Kemp, Henry Giles, Fred Bernecke, Gordon Parker, Miss Belle Dennis, Miss Mary Dennis, Mrs. Henry Giles, Miss Alvirra Page, Miss Cecilia Marthaller and Marjorie Callahan.

The St. Clare's Dramatic club wish to thank Gordon Parker who entertained with a cornet solo. Mr. Parker plays to the "listeners in" over KFWV, also Laurence Kemp, a former member, and Mr. and Mrs. Callahan, whose daughter danced at the entertainment. They are not of St. Clare's parish. The entertainment was well given and well attended.

RYAN PLACE.

Mrs. O. C. Wolfe, and Adolph Haglund won the first "500" prizes at the card party at Ryan Place on March 17. Mrs. Hugh McConnell and Frank Foster won the bridge prizes.

Miss Mercedes Tuhy has been ill with a bad cold.

TUALATIN.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Harris, of Portland, spent Sunday here.

W. R. Hawhurst transacted business in Forest Grove and Banks the first of this week.

Mrs. Erma Milkus of Lewiston, Idaho, was a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Charles Wilson, last week.

Mrs. C. F. Tigard, Mrs. Fred Leuthi and many others of Tigard, attended church in Tualatin, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Shotwell, of Gaston, Or., came to hear the Rev. Blake service Sunday, according to their annual custom.

Miss Trixie Johnson returned to her studies at the U. of O., Sunday. While here visited friends at Forest Grove and Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Juken of Sandy's Kodak shop, Portland, were guests at the Walter Hawhurst home for dinner, Saturday evening.

Elias Green and son, Warren, and families of Washington, motored to Tualatin Sunday to hear Rev. Blake's message. They were former neighbors of Mr. Blake, owning the Morse ranch.

The leading event in Tualatin the past week was the arrival of Rev. Henry P. Blake, from Pendleton, Or., to speak to his many friends from the pulpit of the M. E. Community church, Sunday morning on the anniversary of his 94th natal day. Mr. Blake is well and spoke with remarkable energy for a man of his years. He was plainly heard by the large congregation on his exposition of the Lord's Prayer. He was assisted by Rev. Henry Cross, Dr. Reed, of Scholls, a former pastor of the church, was present and contributed a solo. There was an augmented choir. Mrs. R. H. Heimbach presided at the piano and Flossie Wildgrube played the saxophone. After a basket luncheon, Rev. Blake gave an interesting talk on important events of his long life. He returned to Pendleton Monday to live with his son, William and family. He has rented his 40-acre farm to Andy Bales.

CAPITOL HILL.

At a special meeting called by the Capitol Hill Community club jointly with the Junior Auxiliary at the club house, plans were formulated for holding a bazaar Saturday, April 30. The following committee chairmen were appointed: General chairman, H. L. Cleaves; kitchen, Mrs. Bert Duncan; dishwashers junior club, Wayne Jensen; ice cream, Hugh Ward; soft drink, Agnes McGuire; fancy work, Mrs. D. Buxkart; fish pond, Mrs. Clyde Matthews; plants, Mrs. N. R. Kyser, Miss Florence DePareq; candy, Mrs. R. P. Marshall; tickets, Irl Dauben; publicity and soliciting, R. P. Marshall; door, J. V. Patton. A dinner of hot biscuits and chicken will be served at 6 o'clock, dancing and good music, door prizes on adult and children's tickets. Donations for booths and dinner earnestly solicited.

Mrs. N. R. Kyser has been appointed chairman on the exhibiting of roses representing Capitol Hill with the Community club exhibiting at the Rose Festival rose show.

A most enjoyable surprise was tendered Mrs. Carrie Shafford and Chester Shafford at their home Sunday, March 20th in honor of their birthday anniversary.

A letter has been received by the community club from the general manager of the Oregon Electric company in which they state that they will repair and paint the Capitol Hill station and promise cooperation with residents in beautifying the station.

MULTNOMAH

Orenomah Chapter, Nr. 141, O. E. S., held a stated meeting in the temple Monday evening, when the degrees were conferred upon Mrs. Martha Rowell. The next meeting will be held Monday evening, April 11, the occasion being the April birthday party for members having birthdays that month, arrangements being in charge of Pearl C. Hays.

Orenomah lodge, No. 177, A. F. & A. M., will hold the April stated meeting at the Temple next Tuesday evening when the worshipful grand master, Edgar M. Sensesich will make his official visit.

West Portland P. T. A. has invited the members of Multnomah P. T. A. to be the guests at their meeting at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, April 8 at West Portland school. The teachers will have charge of the program and a large attendance is hoped for. All members of Multnomah council are urged to attend.

On Tuesday evening, March 22, Mrs. George W. Lyons, of Queensland, surprised her husband with a birthday party in the event of his 82nd birthday.

In spite of the number of milestones Mr. Lyons has passed he is hale and hearty, a wonderfully intelligent and well read man, a Civil War veteran, and a man who has made a success in life. Mr. Lyons was born in northern Michigan.

At the close of the happy party Mr. Lyons told of many incidents that happened during his early life and Civil War times. Ice cream and cake was served. Those present were the sons, grand children and great grand children, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rea and two children, of Multnomah, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rea, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rea and son Grant, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Francis, of Portland, Louise Rea and Dorothy Rea of Portland, Mrs. Hamilton, mother of Mrs. Arthur Rea, and guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Webster.

R. B. Bolt has moved to Metzger.

Nick Collis has been repairing the back porch on his building.

DR. A. E. WILSON
Optometrist
Fine Repairing and Optical Work a Specialty.
Box 367. Beaverton, Or.

PASTURE
80 Acres of The Best PASTURE in the state.
For rent or will rent by the head.
Father Kelly's Place
West of Beaverton.
Enquire Grand Creamery 181 First St. Portland, Or.

BEAVERTON PHARMACY
J. E. HATCH, Prop.
Beaverton, Oregon.

MAPES & SON
Billiard Parlors
Cigars
Tobaccos
Confections
Soft Drinks
Cady Bldg. Watson, St.

Mrs. S. Clair
Clairvoyant Reading
Readings Daily
$1.00
350 1/2 Morrison St. Room 315
1 Block North Stage Depot
Bet. Broadway and Park
PORTLAND, OREGON

Beaverton Exchange
New and Used Furniture
Agents for
Heath & Milligan Paints
$2.75 a gallon
GARDEN TOOLS
BEAVERTON, OREGON

500 BUSINESS CARDS $1.50
PRINTING OF EVERY DESCRIPTION
PIONEER PRINTING & STATIONERY CO.
212 FOURTH STREET—NEAR SALMON
PORTLAND Look for Electric Sign OREGON

Authorized Dealer
MONTAG FURNACES Tar and Gravel Roofing
BEAVERTON SHEET METAL WORKS
FRANK PULVER, Prop.
Phone Tigard 5-52 Beaverton 25-50 Beaverton, Or.

What Your Want Adv. Will Cost

Number of Lines	One Time	Two Times	Three Times	Four Times	Five Times
One Line	$.25	$.50	$.75	$1.00	$1.25
Two Lines	.30	.60	.90	1.20	1.50
Three Lines	.40	.80	1.20	1.60	2.00
Four Lines	.50	1.00	1.50	2.00	2.50
Five Lines	.60	1.20	1.80	2.40	3.00
Six Lines	.70	1.40	2.10	2.80	3.50
Seven Lines	.80	1.60	2.40	3.20	4.00
Eight Lines	.90	1.80	2.70	3.60	4.50

Average 6 short word to the line. No ad taken for less than 25c.
Copy must be in office by Wednesday to insure publication.
All classified ads are cash with order or are to be paid for during the current month. We do not wish to carry these small amounts on the ledger.