Bungalow.
 Girls are no longer known as flappers in our part of the country. They are called "bungalows" painted in front—shingled behind—no upstairs.

Earl C. Reynolds, of La-Grande, Elected President For Coming Year.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or.—(Special).—Earl C. Reynolds, of La Grande, was elected president of the State Association of Commercial Organization secretaries at the forum meeting of the organization held Friday, concluding day of the 7th annual short course for commercial secretaries held this week at the University. C. T. Baker, Medford, was chosen as vice-president of the organization and H. E. Cully, Roseburg, secretary-treasurer. L. P. Sabin, Klamath Falls, retiring president, John Eckman, McMinnville, W. A. Reid, Corvallis, and J. H. Fuller, Ashland, will act as the executive board for the coming year. Resolutions were passed at the meeting to promote the idea of converting the Three Sisters mountain region into a national park. The discouraging of solicitations of magazines, because of a financial drain upon members, unless the publication carried a written endorsement of the state chamber of commerce was also passed as a resolution.

Big Barn To Be Erected At St. Mary's Institute

The McCready Lumber company announce the sale of lumber for a large barn at St. Mary's Institute. Mr. Peters is the contractor. They also announce that W. P. Brooks, of Aloha, is building a brooder house. E. A. Seawall, Aloha, a new house. W. H. Hart, addition to chicken house. Fred Barn is erecting a new house; Carl Hamer, of Cedar Mills, house; Henry McLeod, building a garage; D. C. Macey, a 28x36 eight-room house; F. Niesley 28x36 five-room house; A. T. Mitchell, who bought the Cummock place, building a 20x32 chicken house; E. Burn, chicken house and brooder; Sam Lord, building a house at Huber. The Paul Hatch house is nearing completion on the highway and will have two fireplaces.

CHURCH OF CHRIST.
 Only a few more night of the evangelistic meetings remain. Evangelist Baird has shown his versatility in appearing before the grange, I. O. O. F. lodge and high school, with a number of humorous readings. As a preacher he is just as good. In the contest with the Carlton Christian Bible school, which closed last Sunday, Beaverton maintained her reputation as a winner. On the last Sunday of the contest, the two schools tied; but Beaverton had obtained a lead of 28 points the week before, so the banner is ours. Have you been with us in the Bible school? Last Sunday, the attendance jumped from 122 to 147. The men's and women's classes each had 40 in attendance last Sunday.

Coming! Entertainment!
 An unusual entertainment will be given in the auditorium of the Church of Christ on Monday, April 4, at 8 p. m. Evangelist Billy Baird will speak.

Celebrates Her 4th Birthday.

C. J. Stickney Place Was Sold This Week

C. J. Stickney this week sold his former home, consisting of a pretty 3 1/2 acre tract, six room house and large chicken house, located a half mile south of Aloha, to Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hart, recently of Bend, Or., and they moved into their new home Tuesday. Mr. Hart is an employe of the Willamette Iron Works in Portland and will continue his duties with that firm, but feels that he can increase his income materially with a nice piece of acreage, and will devote all his spare time to poultry, fruit and garden.

Spring Time Is Clean-up Time in Town of Aloha

Charley Thompson, of Portland, one of the pioneer residents of Aloha, and one of the early members of the school board, was a visitor Saturday. Mr. Thompson owns a nice property on Hunter avenue and is getting ready to "paint up and clean up" for spring, all of which reminds us the time is now here for all to get busy on this job.

Given Big Surprise On Wedding Anniversary

A crowd of 50 neighbors gathered at the home of J. H. Reichert Saturday evening and surprised Mr. and Mrs. Reichert. It was their 30th wedding anniversary. Cards and dancing were enjoyed until a late hour when a delicious lunch was served.
