Demonstration Cook With Gas

Beginning Tuesday May 10, and Thursday, May 12

AT BEAVER THEATRE

Rose Bartlett, of the Home Service Department of the Portland Gas and Coke Company Will Lecture

Rose Bartlett of the Home Service Department of the Portland Gas and Coke Co., will conduct a cooking school and demonstrate the operation of the new all enamel ranges at the Beaver Theatre Tuesday afternoon, from 2:30 to 4 p. m., also on Thursday afternoon, May 12.

Two of the latest all-enamel gas ranges have been installed at the theatre. Mrs. Bartlett uses two ranges in these cooking demonstrations that she can start one operation while the other is baking. Most women find it hard to keep one range going without burning the food, but with the modern range with its automatic temperature control which keeps the oven at just the right temperature, it is not necessary to peep in the oven every few minutes and the guess work is taken out of cooking.

In an interview with Mrs. Bartlett, she said: "certainly, women of today are good cooks. Why shouldn't they be? Look at the modern kitchen and its equipment today and then remember what grandmother had to work with!"

"Think of the development of the modern range! In early days the cooking and baking was done over an open fire in an immense fireplace. And tradition has it that wonderful dinners were prepared. But think of the time in preparation!

"Then came the wood stove, the open gas stove, the electric range, and finally the modern gas range with its covered top which keeps the kitchen clean by carrying off all the burned gases and with the oven heat control which eliminates the oven peeping and insures a wonderful brown on the pies and cakes.

"Modes and methods of cooking have changed. Women no longer spend their time reading Tennyson, they are more interested in living and to live we must eat right."

House wives are becoming more interested in "overhead" and are watching for 'leaks' as our modern business man does. She is pondering and figuring how to get a full dollar's worth out of every dollar—but she has found that she must not stint on food and she must learn to use every "left over" so part of each day will be devoted by Mrs. Bartlett to croquettes.

The program for Tuesday will cover: Jiffy Cake, with emergency icing, Noodle ring and filling, Vegetable ring, Sunday evening supper, Orange Nut bread, Hamburg pie, Princess potatoes.

Valuable packages of well known, tried and true foods will be given away, a 49 pound sack of flour, shortening, macaroni, coffee, etc. Bring a friend along so that if you are not one of the lucky ones, she may be, and if you help her to carry home these useful food products, she may be willing to divide with you.

Classes will begin at 2:30 which will allow time to do some early shopping and will close at 4:00 p. m. which will permit the ladies to get home in time to try out some of the recipes for hubby's dinner.

Remember to keep open Tuesday and Thursday afternoon of the next two weeks in order to attend the cooking school. You will be well repaid.

The Beaverton Review has arranged for these classes for several years and it has always created a great deal of interest.

A Mother's Work and Her Hopes

by ARTHUR BRISBANE

On a hot night, in the dusty streets of a dirty city, you see hundreds of women sitting in the doorways, taking care of babies.

In the middle of the night, in the earliest morning, when men sleep, all over the world, you find women awake, cheerfully and gladly taking care of babies.

There was never a man whose courage and devotion could be compared with that of a woman caring for her baby.

The mother's love is unselfish, and it has no limit this side of the grave.

Everything that a man has and is he owes to his mother. From her he gets health, brain, encouragement, moral character, and all his chances of success.

Napoleon was cold, jealous of other men, monumentally egotistical when comparing himself with other sons of women. But he revered and appreciated the noble woman who bore him, lived for him, and watched over him to the end. He said:

"It is to my mother, to her good principles, that I owe my success and all I have that is worth while. I do not hesitate to say that the future of the child depends on the mother."

The future of the individual child depends on the individual mother, and the future of the race depends on the mothers of the race.

LAWS SHOULD BE SIMPLIFIED

According to Dr. McPherson in a talk given Before Pomona Grange

SHERWOOD APRIL 27

Hillsboro has Large Grange Membership, 201; Tigard Butte 123; Beaverton 92

Dr. McPherson gave a talk before 250 Grangers at Sherwood, April 27, at the quarterly meeting of the Washington County Pomona, in which he spoke of the need of reorganizing and simplifying the governmental machinery. He spoke of changes that had been made in the business world following panics and depressions leading to greater co-operation and efficiency, but in the field of government there had been no improvements equal to economic and social development. He said that under the cabinet system it would be centralized in a few men but that "there isn't a ghost of a show to get any such plan thru the legislature here."

Marker Master Jones, urged the members to stand back of the grange income tax.

Mrs. Ida Gustin, of Tigard, gave a reading, entitled, "The Vision of The Stars."

Mrs. B. K. Denny, of Beaverton, lecturer, reported a gain of 31 over the January report.

Tigard Butte has 123 members, with a gain of 10; Sherwood 60; Gales 92; Washington 42, gain 4; Beaverton 92, gain 2; Scholls 64, gain 4; Leedy 45; Riverside 41, gain 3; Kinton 33 and Banks 35, gain 5.

County Assessor, Baley, was criticised because he failed to carry out promises of H. B. 72 in reference to assessments.

R. Hornecker, of Hillsboro, was chosen delegate and Mrs. Ida Gustin, Tigard alternate, delegate to the State Grange.

An interesting visitor was Mrs. Lydia Carter of Oswego, who was the first woman to hold post of Master in any grange in the world. In 1878 she was master of Tualatin grange.
