TIGARD.

William H. Case, the third member of his family to go into newspaper work in Oregon, started his career recently as assistant to every body on the Polk County Observer at Dallas. He is a brother of Robert Case, formerly an Oregonian reporter and now a short story writer, Victoria Case, Telegram and James Case, Oregon Emerald staff, 1925.—Oregon Exchanges. P. B. Case, of Tigard, is also a brother.

Mrs. Minnie Bond, state grange lecturer, surprised Butte lodge with an official visit last Thursday. She spoke on the benefits received from the grange. At the next meeting candidates will be initiated.

A district convention was held at McMinnville Monday night of the Dayton, Sheridan, Newberg, Amity and Sherwood chapters of the Order of Eastern Star. It was a very interesting meeting, 250 attending.

W. L. Upshaw is living in Tigard again.

Mrs. Reeser, son Ben, and Lyle Thomas saw Ben Hur in Portland Saturday evening.

Several large fir trees have been cut down on the grange property. It made over a cord of wood. The trees have needed thinning out for some time.

J. Lenz was busy Saturday cleaning up the flower beds and putting brick around the beds.

The Altar society of St. Anthony church held a card party at their hall Saturday night.

J. H. Litton is putting in a lawn at the J. R. Puritan home. He laid a cement walk to the house Saturday.

W. M. Simpson is building a four-room house near Metzger. The lumber was furnished by the Tigard Lumber company. G. L. Touz built a four-room house near Tualatin last week.

A. E. Johnson has had tile laid in front of his property on the highway near the railroad tracks. He has not yet decided on the style or size of his new building.

Durward Finley was home over the week-end.

R. H. Granly is in southern Oregon on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Brumwell of Treece have been quite ill with the flu.

Charles Kuenzler is going to become a citizen of Tigard again about May 1. He will live in his own house, and J. A. Crabtree is moving into the Fonner house.

Mrs. J. Fonner, Miss Lavina Fonner and Mrs. Michael are planning a trip through California, New Mexico and the east about May 1.

Edward Bellinger broke his ankle instead of just straining it at the track meet a week ago. His foot was put in a plaster cast and he would not take an anesthetic.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Rue drove to Longview Friday to attend a ball given by the Purchasing Agents association.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Zweiner and Miss Ellen Zweiner drove to Beaverton Saturday night to attend the card party and dance given by the Rainbow club. A. Zweiner won first gentleman's prize and Mrs. Zweiner the booby prize.

Howard Loble, of Seattle, is visiting his sister, Mrs. L. M. Erickson.

E. B. Nedry spent Saturday in Monmouth at an educational meeting.

B. F. Mulkey, of Portland, was the principal speaker at the Bible Study class which met at Mr. Moore's home Wednesday. Ice cream and cake was served.

Miss Frances Mauer is slightly improved although her back hurts her most of the time. Her back is in a plaster cast.

E. C. Davis, of Multnomah, has moved to Tigard so that the members of his family can attend high school.

In giving a list of those taking part in the grange minstrel show, the names of Mrs. O'Kelly, as interlocutor and Mrs. W. A. Root as Pansy, were overlooked.

"Curly" and Ray Kimmy spent the week end at the coast fishing.

F. W. North and wife, of Portland, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Tigard Sunday.

A birthday party was given by Thelma Stromquist at the home of her parents, on Sunday afternoon, April 17. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent in games after which refreshments were served and more games enjoyed until evening. Those present were Elinor Panck, Helen Miller, Alma Joupo, Ruth Hjelt,

Grace and Dorothy Miller, Evelyn Berg, Edna and Thelma Stromquist.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson and family of Hoquiam, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Johnson and family of Middleton, Or., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Stromquist Easter Sunday.

Forest Grove Has Clean Up Week

Dr. A. E. Wilson observed while on a business trip to Forest Grove Tuesday that cleanup week was being put into effect. He states rows of tin cans and rubbish were piled on the sidewalk ready to be carted away.

ALOHA

Fire Chief Holden, of Portland, is taking advantage of these wonderful spring days in improving his Aloha property. Mr. Holden has one of the nicest homes in this locality and takes great pleasure in spending his spare time with his garden, flowers and shrubbery.

A. J. Gerrow celebrated the advent of our balmy spring weather with the purchase of a new Buick sedan, and the family anticipate a number of enjoyable trips this summer.

The "Hard Times" dance, under the auspices of a number of young ladies of Aloha and Beaverton, given in the Aloha hall Friday evening was a most enjoyable social event.

Mrs. Harry MacLeod and little daughter arrived home Friday morning from a six months' visit with her mother at Sacramento, Cal. The trip home was made by boat and was highly enjoyable. Mrs. MacLeod says California has experienced one of the rainiest winter seasons in many years, and she is glad to be back in Oregon and her Aloha home again.

Another "Community Movie," sponsored by courtesy of the Huber Commercial club, was very much enjoyed Saturday evening. These shows are all given for the sole benefit of the boys and girls' work of the Aloha and Huber communities, and more interest is being stimulated in them each time. Another show, bigger and better than ever, is scheduled for May 14. Watch for further announcements and be sure to be there to help the good work along.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson, of Galesburg, Illinois, were new arrivals last week to make their future home in the Oregon country. The trip covered about 3500 miles, by way of the southern route, and was very much enjoyed in a new car without even a punctured tire to trouble them. Mr. Anderson has rented a nice five acre tract with buildings belonging to Otto Erickson a mile south of Tobias, and is unloading a carload of household goods and moving into the place to day, where he will specialize in berries and poultry.

A. T. Mitchell, residing on Union avenue, recently completed a dandy new chicken house and put in a thousand baby chicks. Last Tuesday afternoon the building caught fire from an overheated brooder stove, but fortunately the blaze was discovered by neighbors who assisted in putting it out before a great deal of damage was done except to the brooder equipment, which was a total loss. C. J. Stickney was called over by Mr. Mitchell the next day and the new structure is now adequately protected by a reliable fire insurance policy.

The second year cooking class spend the hours from 10 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m. every day at the club house. Bread was made Tuesday.
