A. G. Small Returns From China

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Small, who have been 14 years at Nanking, China, are visiting with his brother, W. B. Small and family. Mr. Small lost everything he owned when the Chinese looters robbed the university and narrowly escaped with his life. Even the rings were torn from Mrs. Small's hands and for a few seconds it looked as though she would be killed by the soldiers but they spared her life.
